

Writing Assignment: Op-Ed Essay

In this assignment, you will write an essay on an issue or controversy in contemporary digital society in the format of an “op-ed” article, using a historical perspective from the course, your own opinion, and research from newspapers and magazine sources.

An op-ed article is a piece of writing that appears in a magazine, website, or newspaper, and expresses a guest expert’s opinion on a topic—that is, someone who isn’t a regular writer for the publication. In venues like The New York Times the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel, USA Today the Madison State Journal scientists, activists, public officials and other experts with a strong viewpoint provide expert and informed opinions on topics of contemporary importance.

In this assignment, you are the expert! You have experience using and thinking about digital technologies, you have opinions about society, culture, and technology—and, now, you have a few weeks of historical understanding of where computer technologies came from and what sorts of issues have surrounded their development since their invention. In the course of the next weeks, that understanding will only grow.

The Plan:

This assignment builds over the course of the semester.

1. First, between now (September 17) and October 2, meet with either your TA or Professor Kennedy during their zoom office hours for a quick 5 minute meeting to discuss an idea for an op-ed (click here to make an appointment with Professor Kennedy <https://calendly.com/devinkennedy/opedhistsci150>)
2. Second, you will write a draft of the op-ed (more details below) and submit it on canvas on October 30th We will check in during discussion sections about the progress of your articles during October, and if you have questions or concerns, please bring them to us—many may have similar issues and we can address them together.
3. Third, you will provide structured editorial feedback on the work of a peer, and receive feedback on your own work. (details on that to follow!)
4. Fourth and finally, you will take that feedback and produce a final version that you submit on canvas by December 9.

What is an Op-ed?

Newspapers and magazine, either in-print or online, often feature guest contributions from scientists, activists, community leaders, elected officials, intellectuals, business leaders, students, professors—basically anyone with an opinion that is informed by experience and research!
