Ferguson-Patrick, S. Macqueen, 2015-02-27 This volume addresses the need for an international perspective on global education and provides alternate voices to the theme of global education The editors asked international educators in different contexts to indicate how their own experience of global education addresses the broad and contested concepts associated with this notion Following the lead of the internationally acknowledged authors from North America Europe Africa Australia and Asia perspectives were provided on a wide variety of contexts including tertiary education and teacher education various pedagogies for global education including digital pedagogies and curriculum development at school tertiary and community levels Contesting and Constructing International Perspectives in Global Education explores the tensions inherent in discussions of global education from a number of facets including spatial pedagogical temporal social and cultural and provides critical descriptive and values laden interpretations The book is divided into five sections Temporal and Spatial Views of Global Education Telling National Stories of Global Education Empowering Citizens for Global Education Deconstructing Global Education and Transforming Curricula for Global Education It is envisaged as a starting point for a stronger international conception of global education and a way to build a conversation for the future of global education in a neo liberal and less internationally confident time

Post-Socialist Translation Practices Nike K. Pokorn, 2012-10-31 The book Post Socialist Translation Practices explores how Communism and Socialism through their hegemonic pressure found expression in translation practice from the moment of Socialist revolution to the present day Based on extensive archival research in the archives of the Communist Party and on the interviews with translators and editors of the period the book attempts to outline the typical and defining features of the Socialist translatorial behaviour by re reading more than 200 translations of children s literature and juvenile fiction published in the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia SFRY Despite the variety of different forms of censorship that the translators in all Socialist states were subject to the book argues that Socialist translation in different cultural and linguistic environments especially where the Soviet model tried to impose itself purged the translated texts of the same or similar elements in particular of the religious presence The book also traces how ideologically manipulated translations are still uncritically reprinted and widely circulated today
