has been going through a dynamic transformation into a mass tourism attraction the book offers a critical reflection on heritagisation as a meaning making process in which the resources of the past are interpreted negotiated and recognised as a valuable legacy Applying the concepts of dissonant heritage to describe the heterogeneous character of the CEZ the book broadens the interpretative scope of dark tourism which takes on a new dimension in the context of the war in Ukraine Tourism and Heritage in the Chornobyl Exclusion Zone argues that post disaster sites such as Chornobyl can teach us a great deal about the importance of preserving cultural and natural heritage for future generations The book will be of interest to academics and students who are engaged in the study of heritage tourism memory disasters and Eastern Europe The Adventure Tourist Jelena Farkić, Maria Gebbels, 2022-01-20 The Adventure Tourist Being Knowing Becoming responds to the requirements of the outdoor adventure industry today and considers how engagement with theory can inform challenge and support real world scenarios in this sector Critical Issues in Tourism Co-Creation Giang Thi Phi, Dianne Dredge, 2021-07-05 Co creation is fast becoming a buzz word in tourism Traditional approaches to value creation in tourism suggest that operators and suppliers produce goods and services which are consumed by tourists The value produced is usually measured in economic terms Co creation challenges these assumptions arguing that tourism producers and consumers co create value together and that this value is more diverse than just economic value Technologies underpinning social media ratings and review tools and e commerce are facilitating the creation of diverse values and have been responsible for driving innovation in for example new business models such as the collaborative economy Social environmental emotional reputational and other kinds of value may also be produced and a wide range of stakeholders not just producers or consumers might also benefit from the value co creation process This edited volume seeks to go beyond the dominant business management marketing perspectives that focus on the co creation of market value and innovation to excavate complex and critical episodes of co creation in tourism By engaging authors from both the academy and beyond it explores the rich historical lineage of co creation and its contemporary practices The chapters in this book were originally published in Tourism Recreation Research Cases on Tour Guide Practices for Alternative Tourism Yildirim, Gulsun, Ozbek, Ozlem, Kilinc, Ceyhun Caglar, Tarinc, Abdullah, 2020-06-19 Tour guides a highly responsible group of professionals who are in direct communication with tourists traveling around the world have a great impact on the proper promotion of the culture of countries global peace and tolerance Additionally they are also effective in the preservation of world natural heritage Thus the educational status of tour guides as well as the characteristics and ethical values that they should possess need to be examined on an international scale In today s world where tourism demand is directed towards all types of tourism practices in special interest tourism should be customized in order to ensure the highest level of service quality and cultural appreciation Cases on Tour Guide Practices for Alternative Tourism provides emerging research exploring the theoretical and practical aspects of the occupational issues that surround tour guides and their applications within international tourism

Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as cultural education specialized learning and international business this book is ideally designed for tour guides travel agencies tour managers tour developers heritage sites museums academicians researchers students industry experts and hospitality professionals Lessons and Legacies XV Erin McGlothlin, Avinoam Patt, 2024-05-15 The fifteenth volume in the Lessons Legacies series featuring multidisciplinary research in the Holocaust and Jewish cultural history on the theme of Global Perspectives and National Narratives The fourteen chapters included in this volume manifest three broad categories history literature and memory These chapters continue the recent trend in Holocaust Studies of a focus on local history integrating specific regional and national narratives into a more global approach to the event Newer studies have continued to incorporate what was once termed the periphery into a more global examination of the experiences of Jewish refugees in flight to Latin America Africa and the Soviet Union At the same time very specific local studies deepen our knowledge of the mechanics of genocide along with the experiences of refugees in flight and the subsequent dimensions of Holocaust memory and representation New research on Holocaust literature continues to unearth unexamined texts from the period of the war itself which can shed light on Jewish responses to persecution and strategies for survival The study of Holocaust testimonies continues to grapple with the challenge of language how to convey through the limits of human language the depths of barbarity to an audience that could never fully understand what they had not personally experienced Likewise literary studies continue to incorporate texts that were once considered outside the standard canon of Holocaust literature such as science fiction and children s literature The tension between local and global perspectives can also be seen quite clearly in what the volume s editors understand by the term memory studies or new approaches to research on museums and memorials The very specific nature of collective memory on the national level continues to be the site of the contested politics of memory A number of the chapters in this volume engage with the conflict of monuments and memorials museums attempts to resolve provenance issues questions around the ethics of Holocaust tourism and the inclusion of new technologies and digital survivors into the memorial landscape

Employment and Tourism Christophe Guibert, Bertrand Réau, 2023-06-09 This book proposes a new and original analysis of tourism employment in order to understand the multiple dimensions economic cultural temporal geographical etc of this cross cutting sector It offers an overview of French knowledge mainly in sociology anthropology geography and law in the light of singular empirical fields The diversity of disciplinary approaches methods and questions allows for comparisons between various segments of the tourism employment market in France and with other countries Based on in depth case studies this book will be a valuable resource for students and academics who wish to understand the specificities of tourism employment and the methods for studying them as well as for professionals in the sector and decision makers in European tourist destinations who wish to enrich their approaches to these phenomena Critical Social Challenges in the Tourism Industry: Labor, Commodification, and Drugs Çıvak, Barış, Bayraktaroğlu, Engin, 2023-09-25 Critical Social Challenges in the Tourism Industry Labor Gentrification and Drugs is a groundbreaking book that delves into the often overlooked critical issues within the field of tourism. The book adopts a critical perspective, shedding light on power relations, domination, and oppression within the tourism industry. By exposing these dynamics, the critical paradigm seeks to liberate both tourist destinations and employees from exploitative conditions. From examining the social and environmental effects of tourism to addressing critical topics such as gentrification, consumerism, commodification, and critical pedagogy, this comprehensive study offers a fresh and thought-provoking analysis of the field. With a focus on labor transformation, the formation of the working class, and the employment of women, children, and immigrants, the book uncovers the intricate labor processes and interactions within the tourism industry. Furthermore, it explores important aspects such as tourist-employee interaction, LGBT tourism, illegal sex tourism, and the use of drugs and psychedelics in the context of tourist mobility. This book is ideal for researchers and students in the field of tourism, offering a comprehensive examination of critical issues within the industry.

Alternative Tourism in Budapest Susan E. Hill, 2017-02-03. Alternative Tourism in Budapest: Class, Culture, and Identity in a Postsocialist City analyzes the particular imaginaries of Hungarian culture that are produced and circulated through alternative tourism a generation after state socialism. Susan Hill records the everyday work of business owners and tour guides at four Budapest alternative tourism companies that lead tourists to areas not typically visited by travelers, and she considers the significance of alternative tourism work for processes of identity making and cultural production in Budapest. This ethnographic study is recommended for scholars of anthropology, cultural studies, and political science.
