Specific Accompanys 9780470084595 The SAGE Handbook of Tourism Studies Tazim Jamal, Mike Robinson, 2009-07-01
The strongest overview I have encountered of the scope and the current state of research across all the fields involved in advancing our understanding of tourism For its range of topics depth of analyses and distinction of its contributors nothing is comparable Professor Dean MacCannell University of California Davis The breadth of vision and sweep of accounts is remarkable and range of topics laudable a rare combination of the authoritative the challenging and stimulating Professor Mike Crang Durham University Tourism studies developed as a sub branch of older disciplines in the social sciences such as anthropology sociology and economics and newer applied fields of study in hospitality management civil rights and transport studies This Handbook is a sign of the maturity of the field It provides an essential resource for teachers and students to determine the roots key issues and agenda of tourism studies exploring The evolution and position of tourism studies The relationship of tourism to culture The ecology and economics of tourism Special events and destination management Methodologies of study Tourism and transport Tourism and heritage Tourism and postcolonialism Global tourist business operations Ranging from local to global issues and from questions of management to the ethical dilemmas of tourism this is a comprehensive critically informed constructively organized overview of the field It draws together an inter disciplinary group of contributors who are among the most celebrated names in the field and will be quickly recognized as a landmark in the new and expanding field of tourism studies Worldwide Destinations and Companion Book of Cases Set Brian G. Boniface, Chris Cooper, 2009 The book of case studies is designed to be used in conjunction with its companion text World Wide Destination The geography of Travel and Tourism However the book can be used as a stand alone resource for the teaching and learning of tourism destinations across the world Tourism Research Methods Brent W. Ritchie, Peter Burns, Catherine Palmer, 2005 Within the tourism industry there is a growing consensus on the need for research to investigate the economic social and environmental impacts of tourism However existing research methods texts are based solely on either the business approach or the social science approach to tourism They often fail to provide real world examples of how to plan implement or analyse tourism related research This book aims to address this divide by integrating theory with practice through the inclusion of specific tourism research case studies alongside research theory It considers a wide range of research issues approaches and techniques with contributions from both experienced and new researchers
