Decolonisation after Democracy Laurence Piper, 2020-05-21 Decolonisation after Democracy addresses the provocative idea that we need to rid higher education of lingering forms of colonial knowledge. This matters because in the colonial era much knowledge was put to the service of subjugating indigenous peoples and the assumptions from this era may linger into the present. Examples of deep rooted and foundational forms of knowledge that carry colonial traits are normative binaries such as civilised and backward modern and traditional and rational and superstitious. In addition some accounts of positive values like freedom equality justice and democracy may hide the assumption that the western experience is the norm from which other kinds are rendered imitations deviations or pathologies. In this collection some of South Africa's leading political scientists and academics engage with the challenge of decolonising knowledge in the research and teaching of politics. It includes new insights about the state international relations clientelism state-society relations and land reform and introduces new ways to engage the colonial library curriculum reform and the marginality of historically black institutions. Finally the contributors deal with the decolonial challenge posed by the FeesMustFall student movements reflecting on issues of revolutionary politics and gender and sexual violence. This book was originally published as a special issue of Politikon.

Violence, Politics and Conflict Management in Africa Munyaradzi Mawere, Ngonidzashe Marongwe, 2016-09-01 This volume critically interrogates from different angles and dimensions the resilience of conflict and violence into 21st century Africa. The demise of European colonial administration in Africa in the 1960s wielded fervent hope for enduring peace for the people of Africa. Regrettably conflict alongside violence in all its dimensions physical religious political psychological and structural remain unabated and occupy central stage in contemporary Africa. The resilience of conflict and violence on the continental scene invokes unsettling memories of the past while negatively influencing the present and future of crafting inclusive citizenship and statehood The book provides fresh insightful ethnographic and intellectual material for rethinking violence and conflict and for fostering long lasting peace and political justice on the continent and beyond With its penetrating focus on conflict and associated trajectories of violence in Africa the book is an inestimable asset for conflict management practitioners political scientists historians civil society activists and leaders in economics and politics as well as all those interested in the affairs of Africa

International Schools Mary Hayden, Jeff Thompson, 2016-03-01 The foundation of the first international schools of the modern era well over a century ago and their burgeoning growth over recent years provides the context in this book for a series of personal perspectives written by some of those who have been involved centrally in their development As the schools themselves have increased not only in number and geographical distribution but also in diversity of style and ownership so have a range of complex issues arisen relating to their fundamental purposes the curricula that they choose what should be taught and what should be learned the nature of their organization including leadership and management and their potential contributions in responding to a perceived global need and in influencing the promotion of international education in national systems of schools The distinguished group of authors contributing to this volume identify the current issues surrounding the rapid evolution of international schools and likely future directions of development based on their own impressive personal and professional experience of the sector That both comparative and international education genres are to be found in approaches taken in the various chapters means that the book will be of interest and value not only to teachers in international schools but also to those working in national schools and to researchers in colleges and universities worldwide

African Democratic Citizenship Education Revisited Yusef Waghid, Nuraan Davids, 2017-11-28 This edited collection explores how democratic citizenship education manifests across the African continent A recognition of rights and responsibilities coupled with an emphasis on deliberative engagement among citizens while not uniquely African provides ample evidence that the concept can most appropriately be realised in relation to its connectedness with experiences of people living on the continent Focussing on a diverse collection of voices the editors and authors examine countries that have an overwhelming allegiance to democratic citizenship education In doing so they acknowledge that this concept enveloped by a certain Africanness has the potential to manifest in practices across the African continent By highlighting the success of democratic citizenship education the diverse and varied contributions from across this vast continent address the malaise in its implementation in countries where autocratic rule prevails This pioneering volume will be an invaluable resource for researchers and students working in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in education policy philosophy of education and global citizenship initiatives

The Ukrainian Intelligentsia and Genocide, Victoria A. Malko, 2021-10-19 This study focuses on the first group targeted in the genocide known as the Holodomor Ukrainian intelligentsia the brain of the nation using the words of Raphael Lemkin who coined the term genocide and enshrined it in international law The study s author examines complex and devastating effects of the Holodomor on Ukrainian society during the 1920 1930s Members of intelligentsia had individual and professional responsibilities They resisted but eventually they were forced to serve the Soviet regime Ukrainian intelligentsia were virtually wiped out most of its writers and a third of its teachers The remaining cadres faced a choice without a choice if they wanted to survive The author analyzes how and why this process occurred and what role intellectuals especially teachers played in shaping contesting and inculcating history Crucially the author challenges Western perceptions of the all Union famine that was allegedly caused by ad hoc collectivization policies highlighting the intentional nature of the famine as a tool of genocide persecution and prosecution of the nationally conscious Ukrainian intelligentsia clergy and grain growers The author demonstrates the continuity between Stalinist and neo Stalinist attempts to prevent the crystallization of the nation and subvert Ukraine from within by non lethal and lethal means University on the Border Lis Lange, Vasu Reddy, Siseko H. Kumalo, 2021-08-27 The volume explores and thinks through the process of decolonising the South African higher education system by examining MustFall The text offers theoretical insights from a historical contemporary and multidisciplinary lens while examining the embedded meanings of the university as an institution idea and set of practices to show the shifts and changes that were inaugurated by MustFall along with the historicities that define the university both locally and globally The retro and prospective insights presented in the book surface the crisis of authority that places the university in a state of precarity which is framed in the book as the border. The volume proposes the concept of the border recognising its conceptual and analytical dynamism as a generative space that can facilitate new imaginaries and articulations of this social institution the university. Diversity and Welfare

Provision Lee Gregory, Steve Iafrafi, 2024-01-11 This book explores how diverse citizens experience welfare provision. It seeks to promote broader debate and address the silences in research and debate particularly in relation under researched groups with the aim of developing a renewed call for analysis. The Palgrave Handbook of Africa's Economic Sectors Evelyn F. Wamboye, Bichaka Fayissa, 2022-05-27 This handbook provides a reference resource to showcase insightful and nuanced perspectives on Africa's agriculture industry services and manufacturing sectors factors affecting the sectors competitiveness and the sectors contribution to employment economic growth and sustainable development. It also addresses the potential benefits that the sectors could harness from the planned Continental Free Trade Area CFTA and in particular how CFTA could increase the efficiency and competitiveness of these sectors. This book provides evidence based holistic analyses of the past and current state of Africa's economic sectors with a strong emphasis on tangible and specific policy recommendations for the purpose of enhancing future economic growth employment and sustainable development of the continent. It also assesses the impact of the first ever Continental Free Trade Area in Africa and its potential implications for Africa's integration into regional and global economy and competitiveness relative to other fast developing economies such as those in Asia. This handbook gives an in depth analysis of fundamental domestic factors that have relevance on the sectors expansion and growth and their contributions to employment economic growth and sustainable development in Africa with differential effects across the continent. The Changing Face of Colonial Education in Africa Peter

Kallaway, 2021-07-29 The Changing Face of Colonial Education in Africa offers a detailed and nuanced perspective of colonial history based on 15 years of research that throws fresh light on the complexities of African history and the colonial world of the first half of the twentieth century. It provides an analytical background to the history of education in the colonial context by balancing contributions by missionary agencies colonial government humanitarian agencies scientific experts and African agents. It offers a foundation for the analysis of modern educational policy for the postcolonial state. It attempts to move beyond clichés about colonial education to an understanding of the complexities of how educational policy was developed in different places at different times while giving credence to arguments that see schooling as a form of social control in the colonial environment. It is essential reading for academics researchers and policymakers looking to better understand colonial education and contextualize modern developments related to the decolonizing African education. It is intended to provide an essential background for policy makers by demonstrating the significance of a historical perspective for an understanding of contemporary educational challenges in Africa and elsewhere. Technologies in Plant Biotechnology and Breeding of Field Crops Kamaluddin, Usha Kiran, M. Food Safety in Low and Middle Income Countries Delia Grace,Bassirou Bonfoh,Hung Nguyen-Viet,Barbara Häslar,2024-02-23 Foodborne diseases FBD are an important externality of agriculture and food systems but only recently have they risen up the development agenda as the result of growing awareness of the health and economic burdens of FBD and how they relate to food systems with a focus on low income and middle income countries LMIC particularly African nations The health burden of FBD is comparable with that of malaria and over 90% falls on people in LMIC with an economic burden of more than US 100 million per year FBD have many other less well estimated effects on nutrition gender equity and the environment While understanding of food safety in domestic markets of LMICs has advanced greatly risk management is in its infancy This Research Topic will bring together leading regional perspectives on food safety in LMICs

Sport and English National Identity in a 'Disunited Kingdom' Tom Gibbons,Dominic Malcolm,2017-02-17 Given sport s centrality in English society what role does it play in symbolising contemporary English national identity This comprehensive study explores the complex set of relationships between sport and what it means to be English in the twenty first century The bond between sport and nationalism has long been recognised but with increasingly vociferous separatist nationalisms threatening the dismantling of the United Kingdom a closer analysis is timely Part one addresses key debates regarding English national identity within the specific sporting contexts of association football cricket tennis cycling and rugby Part two discusses the complex relationship between religion sport and English national identity as well as the attitudes and experiences of traditionally marginalized groups including women minority ethnic groups and disabled people Part three considers the perspectives of the other UK nations on the link between sport and English national identity Sport and English National Identity in a Disunited Kingdom is fascinating reading for all those with an interest in the sociology politics and history of sport and the study of nations nationalism and national identity

Food and Nutrition Security in Southern African Cities Bruce Frayne,Jonathan Crush,Cameron McCordic,2017-12-22 Urban population growth is extremely rapid across Africa and this book places urban food and nutrition security firmly on the development and policy agenda It shows that current efforts to address food poverty in Africa that focus entirely on small scale farmers to the exclusion of broader socio economic and infrastructural approaches are misplaced and will remain largely ineffective in ameliorating food and nutrition insecurity for the majority of Africans Using original data from the African Food Security Urban Network s AFSUN extensive database it is demonstrated that the primary food security challenge for urban households is access to food Already linked into global food systems and value chains Africa s supply of food is not necessarily in jeopardy Rather the widespread poverty and informal urban fabric that characterizes Africa s emerging cities impinge directly on households capacity to access food that is readily available Through the analysis of empirical data collected from 6 500 households in eleven cities in nine countries in Southern Africa the authors identify the complexity of factors and dynamics that create the circumstances of widespread food and nutrition insecurity under which urban citizens live They also provide useful policy approaches to address these conditions that currently thwart the latent development potential of Africa s expanding urban population
