Vaal University Technology Application Form 2015

Sasha Hu

Vaal University Technology Application Form 2015:

University on the Border Lis Lange,Vasu Reddy,Siseko H. Kumalo,2021-08-27 The volume explores and thinks through the process of decolonising the South African higher education system by examining MustFall The text offers theoretical insights from a historical contemporary and multidisciplinary lens while examining the embedded meanings of the university as an institution idea and set of practices to show the shifts and changes that were inaugurated by MustFall along with the historicities that define the university both locally and globally The retro and prospective insights presented in the book surface the crisis of authority that places the university in a state of precarity which is framed in the book as the border The volume proposes the concept of the border recognising its conceptual and analytical dynamism as a generative space that can facilitate new imaginaries and articulations of this social institution the university

Technology contains selected papers from the 2014 5th International Conference on Environmental Science and Information Application Technology ESIAT 2014 Hong Kong 7 8 November 2014 The book covers a wide variety of topics Global Environmental Change and Ecosystems Management Graphic and I Enhanced Chitosan Material for Water Treatment

Ephraim Igberase,Peter Ogbemudia Osifo,Tumisang Seodigeng,Ikenna Emeji,2021-04-29 This book reviews some of the latest developments in the field of water treatment using multi functional chitosan based materials It covers the production of chitosan beads and membranes from chitosan powder as well as modification techniques for enhancing the material for commercial and industrial purposes The book summarizes the results of experimental adsorption desorption studies for elucidating the underlying reaction mechanism of heavy metal removal from wastewater presenting an advanced overview of an array of characterization techniques such as Fourier transform infrared spectroscopy thermogravimetric analysis x ray diffraction and scanning electron microscopy Additionally it features a look at the development and application of specialized engineering software and image analysis for modelling the kinetics of adsorption This book is ideal for scientists and engineers working in the broader field of environmental materials science It is all well suited for chemists as well as industrial and civil engineers interested in wastewater treatment and mitigation of water pollution Corrupted Jonathan D

Jansen,2023-02-01 In South African higher education the images of dysfunction are everywhere Student protests Violence Police presence Rubber or real bullets Class disruptions Burning tyres Damaged buildings Injury and sometimes death Reports of wholesale corruption Year after year often in the same set of universities the problem of routine instability seems insoluble The financial academic and reputational costs of ongoing dysfunction are high especially for those universities caught up in the never ending struggle to overcome apartheid legacies Any number of explanations have been ventured including a lack of resources shortage of capacity rural location corrupt officials and endemic conflict Corrupted takes a deeper look at dysfunction in an attempt to unravel the root causes in a sample of South African universities At the heart of the problem lies the vexed issue of resources or more pertinently the relationship between resources and power who gets what and why Whatever else it aspires to be commonly a place of teaching learning research and public duty a university in an impoverished community is also a rich concentration of resources around which corrupt staff students and those outside of campus all vie for access Taking a political economic approach Jonathan Jansen describes the daily struggle for institutional resources and offers accessible sensible insights He argues that the problem won't be solved through investments in capacity building alone because the combination of institutional capacity and institutional integrity contributes to serial instability in universities Rather durable solutions would include the depoliticisation of university councils and appointments of academics with integrity and capacity to manage and lead these fragile institutions This groundbreaking and long overdue study will offer a promising way forward for universities to better serve their communities and the country more broadly
