

Class Valedictorian Speech Sample

Introduction:

After all those days of wondering, wondering if we would make it to the end, FINALLY, HERE WE ARE AT THIS VERY MOMENT THAT marks the summit of our journey. Graduating class of 2014-2015, PLEASE join me in welcoming our guests. To our guest of honour, Ms. Mellizza Soriano, to our Chief Executive Mentor, Dr. Genevieve Ledesma-Tan, to our school President, Dr. Marl V. Fernal, to our Principal for Basic Education, Ms. Marie-Vic Suarez, the management team, school officials, honored guests, dedicated teachers, beloved parents and fellow graduates, a pleasant morning to all OF YOU!

General Gratitude:

On behalf of every student here, I would like to express my sincerest gratitude to all the teachers and mentors we've had in life. You are the candles that light the way. Thank you for using your precious time and wisdom for us. You HAVE taught us and still are teaching us to achieve excellence. You help us on our way to success. I believe that we're a much better person NOW than we would have been had we not met all of you. I would also like to thank all the parents for your endless support and patience for all of us. You have lovingly cared for us all these years and set the foundation for our future. There are not enough words to express how thankful all of us are.

Change:

March 27, 2015. A MARK IN OUR HISTORIES THAT COMMEMORATES the hard work... of not just the graduates, but also the teachers and parents. It is a very special day that won't be forgotten even if we leave Southville. Today, we acknowledge and give recognition to the people we've met, the lessons we've learned, the tears, the laughter, and the memories we've shared in our years as grade school students. For everything we take with us, there is something that we leave behind. This school year was filled with fond memories. It gave us good and also bad experiences. It taught us many things. Most of us, if not all, are brimming with joy that we're finally done with it, that it's all over now. But it isn't. With every door shut, opens another. Now, this isn't necessarily a bad thing.

Leading Out Loud Terry Pearce, 2003-06-03 As the cycle of change increases its speed leadership communication is becoming more important than ever Since the original publication of Leading Out Loud in 1995 the development of a leader's message has become as critical to success as the delivery of that message In this new and revised edition of his highly praised work Terry Pearce explains how the events of recent years including the information revolution worldwide focus on terrorism and the revelation of corporate scandals have significantly increased the importance of authenticity in leadership to build loyalty in organizations This new edition focuses on the source of a message for change its development as a platform for leadership communication and its many forms of expression from speeches to e-mails, memos, and even informal water cooler conversation. Pearce shows leaders in business, politics, and nonprofits how to communicate their values and vision to inspire commitment. He provides tools and examples from well-known leaders as well as less-known but effective change agents. Leading Out Loud gives readers concrete methods for improving their own communication by guiding them to do the internal work necessary for creating an honest and compelling vision and by demonstrating how readers can find their authentic voice and articulate their messages with confidence. People make commitments, says Pearce, to causes they value and to people they respect and trust. An authentic voice and an inclusive perspective are requisites for any leader who would inspire change. Trust is built by communicating from both the mind and the heart, speaking directly to the minds and hearts of others, listening to their response, and respecting their points of view. All leaders will benefit from Pearce's wisdom, as will anyone else who wants to inspire positive change through others.
