Integrating Study Abroad Into the Curriculum Elizabeth Brewer, Kiran Cunningham, 2023-07-03 With the increased interest in study abroad from government educators employers and students the question is is study abroad engendering the desired intercultural competencies and intellectual development To achieve this goal this book proposes two strategies structure study abroad to bridge the separation of academic learning from experiential and intercultural learning and integrate study abroad with the undergraduate curriculum In proposing this integration the editors take into account the need for institutional change and recognize faculty members concerns about maintaining the integrity of the curriculum teaching in areas outside their expertise and keeping up with ever evolving institutional missions This book opens with two chapters presenting different theoretical perspectives relevant to the integration of study abroad into the curriculum The following nine chapters provide examples from a variety of disciplines from anthropology and religious studies to literature urban studies biology and public health and within such contexts as distance learning service learning and the senior thesis The concluding chapter considers faculty development activities and institutional structures and policies that support curriculum integration While the examples are drawn from Beloit College and Kalamazoo College liberal arts colleges with substantial study abroad enrollments and nationally recognized for their innovative practices readers will recognize they are easily adaptable to their own institutions The two colleges achieved their curricular innovations with limited financial resources and in the context that most of their students are dependent on financial aid The transformational ideas and practices described here provide material for reflection and campus conversations for anyone concerned with developing global citizens and well educated students and offer a blueprint for implementation Serial Killers - Philosophy for Everyone S. Waller, 2011-01-13 Serial Killers Philosophy for Everyone investigates our profound intrigue with mass murderers Exploring existential ethical and political questions through an examination of real and fictional serial killers philosophy comes alive via an exploration of grisly death Presents new philosophical theories about serial killing and relates new research in cognitive science to the minds of serial killers Includes a philosophical look at real serial killers such as Ian Brady Ted Bundy John Wayne Gacy Jeffrey Dahmer and the Zodiac killer as well as fictional serial killers such as Dexter and Hannibal Lecter Offers a new phenomenological examination of the writings of the Zodiac Killer Contains an account of the disappearance of one of Ted Bundy s victims submitted by the organization Families and Friends of Missing Persons and Violent Crime Victims Integrates the insights of philosophers academics crime writers and police officers Blacks and Whites in Christian America Jason E. Shelton, Michael Oluf Emerson, 2012-10-08 2012 Winner of the C Calvin Smith Award presented by the Southern Conference on African American Studies Inc 2014 Honorable Mention for the Distinguished Book Award presented by the American Sociological Association s Sociology of Religion Section Conventional wisdom holds that Christians as members of a universal religion all believe more or less the same things when it comes to their faith Yet black and white Christians differ in significant ways from their frequency of praying or attending services to whether they regularly read the Bible or believe in Heaven or Hell In this engaging and accessible sociological study of white and black Christian beliefs Jason E Shelton and Michael O Emerson push beyond establishing that there are racial differences in belief and practice among members of American Protestantism to explore why those differences exist Drawing on the most comprehensive and systematic empirical analysis of African American religious actions and beliefs to date they delineate five building blocks of black Protestant faith which have emerged from the particular dynamics of American race relations Shelton and Emerson find that America s history of racial oppression has had a deep and fundamental effect on the religious beliefs and practices of blacks and whites across America

Medieval Afterlives in Popular Culture G. Ashton,D. Kline,2012-12-10 This book is concerned with our ideological technical and emotional investments in reclaiming medieval for contemporary popular culture The authors illuminate both medieval and contemporary popular culture in surprising and productive ways while interrogating the many ways in which metamedievalism reinterprets and reconceptualises the medieval

Arthurian Literature XXXVII Megan G. Leitch, Kevin S. Whetter, 2022 New and fresh assessments of Malory's Le Morte Darthur The essays here are devoted to that seminal Arthurian work Sir Thomas Malory's Le Morte Darthur Developments of papers first given at the Malory at 550 Old and New conference they emphasise here the second part of its remit Accordingly several contributors focus new attention on Malory's style using his stock phrases metaphors characterization or manipulation of sources to argue for a deeper appreciation of his merits as an author If as others illustrate Malory is a much better artist than his twentieth century reputation allowed then there is a renewed need to reassess the vexed question of the possible originality of his Tale of Sir Gareth of Orkeney Similarly fresh approaches underlie those essays re-examining Malory's attitude to time and the sacred in The Sankgreal the manner in which the ghosts of Lot and his sons highlight potential failures in the Round Table Oath or the pleasures and pitfalls of Arthurian hospitality The remaining contributions argue for new approaches to Malory's narrative gaps Launcelot's status as a victim of sexual violence and the importance of rejecting Victorian moral attitudes towards Gwenyvere and Isode moralizing that still informs much recent scholarship addressing Malory's female characters Contributors Joyce Coleman Elizabeth Edwards Kristina Hildebrand Cathy Hume David F Johnson Megan Leitch Andrew Lynch Molly A Martin Cory James Rushton Fiona Tolhurst Michael W Twomey
