Romanticism and Esoteric Tradition Paul Davies, Senior Research Fellow in the Centre for Commercial Law Paul Davies, 1998-02-15 Spiritual quest is at the very heart of poetry but in the materialistic climate of the late twentieth century this has been almost forgotten even by those claiming to be experts in interpreting literature How does the worldview common to the main esoteric traditions of East and West correspond to the aims of such Romantic poets as Shelley Keats Blake Coleridge and Wordsworth In Romanticism and Esoteric Tradition Paul Davies maintains that only in the light of the spiritual teachings of these traditions can the poetry and thinking of the Romantics be understood as they intended This is one of the first books to connect the creative nature of poetry to the core teachings of the esoteric tradition and thereby to bring out the true meaning of several Romantic writers whose works have been trivialized by a culture that has marginalized the spiritual and tied itself to material historical and social issues The author also shows that the Romantics were the first Western poets to imagine the relationship of the self to the environment as personal encounter In this sense the Romantics were recalling a long held secret of the esoteric human sciences not inventing a new one This book brings the deepest interests of the Romantics directly into contact with issues closest to present day students of the spiritual traditions and holistic perspectives

Johnson,2020-12-15 The theory of literary worlds has become increasingly important in comparative and world literatures But how are the often contradictory elements of Eastern and Western literatures to cohere in the new worlds such contact creates Drawing on the latest work in philosophical logic and analytic Asian philosophy this monograph proposes a new model of literary worlds that is best suited to comparative literature dealing with Western and East Asian traditions Unlike much discussion of world literature anchored in North American traditions featured here is the transnational work of artists philosophers and poets writing in English French Japanese and Mandarin in the twentieth century Rather than imposing sharp borders this book suggests that vague boundaries link Eastern and Western literary works and traditions and that degrees of distance can better help us to see the multiple dimensions that both distinguish and join together literary worlds East and West As such it enables us to grasp not only how East Asian and Western writers translate one another s works into their own languages and traditions but also how modern writers East and West modify their own traditions in order to make them fit in the new constellation of literary worlds brought about by the complex flow of literary information across twentieth century Eurasia A Generation of Spanish Poets 1920-1936 C. B. Morris,1969-09 This critical study of the group of remarkably talented poets who flourished in Spain between the First World War and the Spanish Civil War includes copious quotations accompanied by English prose translations Mr Morris treats his poets as a group showing how they shared certain themes and attitudes He begins with a general study of the generation as a whole and then examines the use of tradition the zest and levity of the Jazz Age the exaltation of life as a shared attitude then its converse the escape from life and finally the expression in complex imagery of personal tensions and disturbances These are often difficult poets but become less so when they are sympathetically examined in this way and in relation to earlier literary traditions Mr Morris enables the reader to take bearings and establish relationships which are enhanced by reproductions of photographs of the poets Kāma's Flowers Valerie Ritter,2011-09-01 Kama s Flowers documents the transformation of Hindi poetry during the crucial period of 1885 1925 As Hindi was becoming a national language and Indian nationalism was emerging Hindi authors articulated a North Indian version of modernity by reenvisioning nature While their writing has previously been seen as an imitation of European Romanticism Valerie Ritter shows its unique and particular function in North India Description of the natural world recalled traditional poetics particularly erotic and devotional poetics but was now used to address sociopolitical concerns as authors created literature to advocate for a national character and to address a growing audience of female readers Examining Hindi classics translations from English poetry literary criticism and little known popular works Ritter combines translations with fresh literary analysis to show the pivotal role of nature in how modernity was understood Bringing a new body of literature to English language readers Kama s Flowers also reveals the origins of an influential visual culture that resonates today in Bollywood cinema Library of the World's Best Literature, Ancient and Modern Charles Dudley Warner,Hamilton Wright Mabie,Mrs. Lucia Isabella (Gilbert) Runkle,George Henry Warner,1902 The Fourth Dimension
