What Are Differences Between Nfsas And Other Student Loans:

Fees Must Fall Susan Booyesen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and its double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr., Vijay Reddy, 2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country s developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy Creating the New African University, 2023-05-25 Creating the New African University grapples with the existence of African universities particularly in post independent Africa where Higher Education Institutions HEIs are supposed to live up to the expectations of being adaptive in dealing with prevalent complex dynamic contemporary and future challenges facing African societies The book tackles the issue of what ought to be done for African universities to maintain a structure and identity that ensures their relevance in Africa s development through generating and transforming knowledge into actions for the common good It engages issues within the context of how post colonial transformative obligations have been managed in light of the prevalent epistemological and pedagogical underpinnings that form the foundations of these universities as they seek to break from the clutches of colonial legacies This book further highlights an urgent need to do away with silos and embrace a multidisciplinary interdisciplinary

transdisciplinary and cross disciplinary dialogical approach towards knowledge generation Such an approach is essential in efforts aimed at enhancing the sustainable reconfiguration of university structures and functions whilst linking knowledge produced to diverse social economic and political facets of African societies in ways that promote and sustain competitiveness in a rapidly globalising world beset with technological advancements

The Attempted Erasure of the Khoekhoe and San Jacob Cloete, 2023-11-22 The Attempted Erasure of the Khoekhoe and San delves into the complex issue of problematic coloured identity and the ongoing erasure of the Khoekhoe and San people in South Africa Despite the end of apartheid this erasure continues to persist today starting as far back as 1652 There were two types of erasure that took place genocide and bureaucratic While the former is acknowledged by President Thabo Mbeki in his I Am an African speech the latter began in 1828 with Ordinance 50 in the Cape Colony From this point the Khoekhoe and San were bureaucratically erased culminating in the 1950 Population Registration Act Despite these attempts the Khoekhoe and San people resisted and fought for their identity resulting in their continued existence in the present day This book documents their painful journey highlighting their struggles against subjugation and erasure since 1652

Universities, Inclusive Development and Social Innovation Claes Brundenius, Bo Göransson, José Manoel Carvalho de Mello, 2016-10-25 This book examines the ways in which universities can play a crucial role in inclusive development social innovation and social entrepreneurship It aims to prove the importance of inclusive development and inclusive innovation on economic growth and demonstrate the ways in which universities can be pioneers in this area through initiatives in social responsibility and social innovation For example providing access to a university education without discrimination of race gender income status or other factors would help to diminish the increasing income differentials currently being experienced in many countries especially in the developing world The research and studies included in this book provide insight into possible actions that can be taken by universities and public and private shareholders in inclusive development social innovation social entrepreneurship and overall regional economic and social development Innovation is currently considered to be the most important and dynamic factor explaining growth and development At the same time the traditional view considering innovation as having to be commercialized at any price is being challenged Lately there has been growing interest in innovation in the public sector particularly with respect to social innovations designed to reduce income inequality To address these concepts constant exchange of ideas and information between research groups became necessary UniDev Universities in Development the Evolving Role of Academic Institutions in Innovation Systems and Development is an international research group with researchers in twelve countries interested in the role of universities in development This book features the results of research performed by eleven research groups from UniDev country communities presenting in depth and comparative case studies from universities around the world including Latin America Northern and Eastern Europe and sub Saharan Africa This title will be of interest to students academics researchers and policy makers interested in the role of universities in development social innovation and social entrepreneurship

Student Financing of Higher Education Donald Heller, Claire Callender, 2013-06-07 The financing of higher education is undergoing great change in many countries around the world In recent years many countries are moving from a system where the costs of funding higher education are shouldered primarily by taxpayers through government subsidies to one where students pay a larger share of the costs There are a number of factors driving these trends including A push for massification of higher education in the recognition that additional revenue streams are required above and beyond those funds available from governments in order to achieve higher participation rates Macroeconomic factors which lead to constraints on overall government revenues Political factors which manifest in demands for funding of over services thus restricting the funding available for higher tertiary education A concern that the returns to higher education accrue primarily to the individual rather than to society and thus students should bear more of the burden of paying for it This volume will help to contribute to an understanding of how these trends occur in various countries and regions around the world and the impact they have on higher education institutions students and society as a whole With contributions for the UK USA South Africa and China this vital new book gives a truly global picture of the rapidly changing situation
