Of all the friends one gets to have in a lifetime, the good friends are the ones who last longest and become family. Friends are the people we let into our walled-off lives – they are the people we know well and with whom we have a bond of mutual affection. A good friend is someone who defends and protects, who is loyal, considerate and kind, a person who is fun and brings out the best in their friends. The list of qualities making up a good friend is endless and depends on the individual. However, there are many common qualities that can be seen in all “good” friends.

For starters, a good friend is a person on which someone else can always depend. This can probably be said about all good friends. They are dependable. When another friend needs them, they are the first there to help. They make their friend’s problem their own problem, too. Whether it’s money, time, resources or emotional support, a good friend is always there for someone they care about, for their other friends. They are reliable – you can always rely on a good friend. It’s kind of a little miracle, that your friend always happens to be there for you, willing to offer their time and energy.

Also, another quality of a good friend is being a good listener. Sometimes, people just need someone to talk to, someone who will listen and put their own thoughts, concerns, and opinions aside just for a few minutes. Being a good listener is a friend attractor, actually, because listening demonstrates one’s support, sensitivity, empathy, kindness, and consideration – among other things. In times of celebration and in times of hardship, what everyone needs and wants and requires is someone they can express their thoughts, emotions, concerns, and celebrations to. It’s a rather simple, almost innate need – to have a friend.

On top of that, a good friend is thoughtful. A good friend is a friend who will, upon hearing of their friend’s bad day, will change their plans and plan something that friend will definitely find uplifting. A good friend is someone who will, upon getting the news about their friend’s promotion or a new job, will throw a party in their name and celebrate with them to make the moment memorable and special. Thoughtfulness means mindfulness, which requires being a good listener and caring about a person.

Everyone wants respect, needs it and has to have it. It feels good. It’s a feeling of deep admiration for someone or something elicited by their abilities, qualities, or achievements, something all good friends also must have or demonstrate from time to time. Most good friendships are supported by mutual respect. This means they look up to that person and have an immense amount of satisfaction in being close to, associating with this person and calling them a “friend.”

Lastly, straightforwardness is also a quality that can be found in good friends. This means they say things as they are and can be honest without sugarcoating the truth. This occurs only in the case the friends trust each other’s opinions and can share them.

The Structured Essay Mary Michael Spangler,Rita

Werner,2002-03-18 Perspective on Analytical Writing a Focus on Feature and Editorial Writing Richmond S. Anderson Snr.,2021-12-10 The writing of this book Perspective on Analytical Writing a focus on Feature and Editorial writing is based on the urge for students majoring in mass communication on the African continent particularly those within the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS to have a simplistic understanding of the course feature and editorial writing It will be oblivious or a miss calculation to say that there are no texts books on feature and editorial writing on the African continent since I have not had the opportunity to extensively travel within Africa but what could be safely said is for over three decades since I completed my under graduate studies I have not seen a text book on feature and editorial writing readily Based on this experience the book first endeavored in its starting to give students an insight on what an analytical writing is beginning with a drill on perspective and gave a detailed and vivid picture of perspective thereby laying the basis to understanding what feature and editorial writing is all about Although the core focus of the book is on feature and editorial writing but as the title depicts Perspectives on Analytical Writing more emphases are placed on perspective and analytical writing in order to provide a deeper understanding for the students as a foundation to grasp the concept of feature and editorial writing Also the book featured research as a component to writing an appreciable feature and editorial piece Added to research other ingredients for writing good feature and editorials are also considered They include opinion persuasion and propaganda Furthermore since feature and editorial writings are within the scope of mass communication and journalism it became imperative for the book to touch on the ethical aspect of the profession aimed at providing students the barometer of knowing what to do and not what to do while writing feature and editorial pieces In its conclusive stage the book dealt with the impact of editorial on political actors as it relates to their involvement in the process of national development As you will come across in your reading mass communication and journalism are catalysts to agenda setting in any society therefore it is expected that stakeholders particularly those involved in the governance process of our countries in Africa to take clue from editorial articles especially those that advocate for positive change to propel them to respond to the developmental needs of Africa Now let s be practical and reflect on a simple analogy referencing a performance by a group of movie stars such as the late popular comedian Peter Ballah of Liberia Kekura Kamara with his popular movie Malawala Balawala of Liberia Salla Kamara with his movie Blood Diamond of Sierra Leone Mr Ibu John Okafor with the show Mr Ebu and his son of Nigeria or John Dumelo with the movie the tie that binds of Ghana As these movie stars are performing in their movies the viewers are fascinated with emotion amusement and are thrilled by the performances while in their seats in the theatre movie hall or in their various homes Just as the emotion of viewers is intrigued by the performances or movies so feature and editorial write ups are replica to evoking the emotion of the readers The articles must create a scenario of curiosity to arouse or entice the readers This is the drama in feature and editorial writing      Building a Writing Community Marcia Sheehan Freeman,1995 Explains how to create the philosophical and physical environment needed to develop successful writing communities in which students learn practice and apply writing craft skills
