Ralarala, Salochana Lorraine Hassan, Rajani Naidoo, 2021-05-25. Knowledge remains timely in education. The need for academics to contemplate its relevance, worth, use, and everything in between, deems a continuous intellectual project rather than a conundrum to be solved. This book takes the South African context by the horns as it challenges the often dormant and traditionalist ways in which higher education spaces see knowledge. Through original research and the voices of academics and students, this book argues for repurposing knowledge, generation, knowledge sharing, and critical pedagogy so that more inclusive teaching and learning environments can be both imagined and sustained. The contentious tensionalities that this creates for LoLT and SoTL in particular are unlocked so as to trouble the South African higher education landscape with the intent to proffer alternative pathways for a knowledge beyond colour lines. Prof. Shan Simmonds, PhD, NWU. This edited volume bristles with fresh scholarly approaches and insights of an emergent generation of engaged scholars grappling with the issues and problems of higher education in South Africa. The issues dealt with here are varied and encompassing. They are treated with intellectual delicacy and probing sensitivity, articulacy, informed data, and bold conclusions. They serve well. Prof. Kwesi Kwaa Prah, Emeritus Professor of Sociology, University of the Western Cape, Founder of the Centre for Advanced Studies of African Society. ETDP SETA Scarce & Critical Skills Guide 2010/11, In Pursuit of Epistemic Healing in South African Universities Wanelisa Xaba, 2025-09-30. This book demonstrates the epistemic challenges in the South African education system and asks readers to think critically about the university's role in a decolonial future. Wanelisa Xaba reveals how Western colonial educational models severed indigenous ways of knowing and learning across the Global South and settler colonial contexts. Presenting narratives capturing ongoing histories of violence, this book shows how Black South African students navigate intersecting identities of race, class, gender, and spirituality within university settings. It shows how racial discrimination from fellow students, academics, and staff, coupled with discriminatory language policies, financial exclusion, and violent colonial curricula, affects Black students' wellbeing on university campuses. Xaba argues that these intersecting colonial violences mirror spiritual violence, hinder their holistic citizenship in South

African universities and result in psycho spiritual disease By centring Black students voices this book provides crucial insights for educators policymakers activists healers and institutions committed to creating affirming academic spaces and epistemic healing It is an insightful read for scholars researching decoloniality in higher education as well as students of feminist studies decolonial theory educational justice and critical university studies Higher Education in Regional and City Development: The Free State, South Africa 2012 OECD,2012-02-14 This publication explores a range of helpful policy measures and institutional reforms to mobilise higher education for regional development in the Free State of South Africa
