Rhodes, John Parris Springer, 2014-10-01 Through most of the 20th century the distinction between the fictional narrative film and the documentary was vigorously maintained The documentary tradition developed side by side with but in the shadow of the more commercially successful feature film In the latter part of the century however the two forms merged on occasion and mockumentaries fictional works in a documentary format and docudramas reality based works in a fictional format became part of the film and television landscape The 18 essays here examine the relationships between narrative fiction films and documentary filmmaking focusing on how each influenced the other and how the two were merged in such diverse films and shows as Citizen Kane M A S H This Is Spinal Tap and Destination Moon Topics include the docudrama in early cinema the industrial film as faux documentary the fear evoked in 1950s science fiction films the selling of reality in mockumentaries and reality television and documentary forms The essays provide a foundation for significant rethinking of film history and criticism offering the first significant discussion of two emerging and increasingly important genres Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Fruit-growing in South Africa Rees Alfred friends and neighbors in need But in the end we must learn to let it all go In this highly anticipated conclusion to Father Rolheiser s spiritual classics The Holy Longing and Sacred Fire and with characteristic attentiveness and care Rolheiser accompanies readers on a spiritual journey through life s final years and the mellowing of our souls In these years bitterness can give way to forgiveness mere imagination to profound and subtle faith wishful optimism to virtuous hope and control to surrender Readers will learn to see in Jesus a model for a spirituality of holy passivity rather than activity and find in him the courage to overcome the darkest nights of faith Drawing on the work of John of the Cross and Henri Nouwen Rolheiser outlines a spirituality capable of giving away one s death and by that a spirituality of truly living
