The Global Smartphone Daniel Miller ,Laila Abed Rabho ,Patrick Awondo , Maya de Vries,Marília Duque,Pauline Garvey, Laura Haapio-Kirk,Charlotte Hawkins,Alfonso Otaegui ,Shireen Walton,Xinyuan Wang,2021-05-06 The smartphone is often literally right in front of our nose so you would think we would know what it is But do we To find out 11 anthropologists each spent 16 months living in communities in Africa Asia Europe and South America focusing on the take up of smartphones by older people Their research reveals that smartphones are technology for everyone not just for the young The Global Smartphone presents a series of original perspectives deriving from this global and comparative research project Smartphones have become as much a place within which we live as a device we use to provide perpetual opportunism as they are always with us The authors show how the smartphone is more than an app device and explore differences between what people say about smartphones and how they use them The smartphone is unprecedented in the degree to which we can transform it As a result it quickly assimilates personal values In order to comprehend it we must take into consideration a range of national and cultural nuances such as visual communication in China and Japan mobile money in Cameroon and Uganda and access to health information in Chile and Ireland all alongside diverse trajectories of ageing in Al Quds Brazil and Italy Only then can we know what a smartphone is and understand its consequences for people s lives around the world

Technology, Design and the Arts - Opportunities and Challenges Rae Earnshaw,Susan Liggett,Peter Excell,Daniel Thalmann,2020-06-22 This open access book details the relationship between the artist and their created works using tools such as information technology computer environments and interactive devices for a range of information sources and application domains This has produced new kinds of created works which can be viewed explored and interacted with either as an installation or via a virtual environment such as the Internet These processes generate new dimensions of understanding and experience for both the artist and the public s relationships with the works that are produced This has raised a variety of interdisciplinary opportunities and issues and these are examined The symbiotic relationship between artistic works and the cultural context in which they are produced is reviewed Technology can provide continuity by making traditional methods and techniques more efficient and effective It can also provide discontinuity by opening up new perspectives and paradigms This can generate new ideas and produce a greater understanding of artistic processes and how they are implemented in practice Tools have been used from the earliest times to create and modify artistic works For example naturally occurring pigments have been used for cave paintings What has been created provides insight into the cultural context and social environment at the time of creation There is an interplay between the goal of the creator the selection and use of appropriate tools and the materials and representations chosen Technology Design and the Arts Opportunities and Challenges is relevant for artists and technologists and those engaged in interdisciplinary research and development at the boundaries between these disciplines
