The best gift of all is the one you share with someone else. From the moment he strode through the iron gate and into the offices of Two Love Lane on a crisp December day, it was obvious that Deacon Banks was something different. He wasn't a Charleston native, not with that adorable Yankee accent. And unlike the usual client at the elegant matchmaking agency, he had no interest in finding a woman to marry; just a few no-strings dates while he was in town. Macy Frost takes her professional services very seriously; how could she not when she's rumored to be a direct descendant of Cupid. Tech entrepreneur Deacon says he's just trying to make his social climbing aunt happy by being seen out and about with a few prominent beauties, but Macy insists she can make her client fall in love for real. And Deacon can't help but think she might be right. As charming as the palmetto trees and magnificent harbor may be, it's the beautiful breath of fresh air Macy who's become Deacon's favorite part of the scenery. But can the hopelessly romantic Southern belle stop trying to fix
