Lockwood, 2025-07-30 For fans of Tara Westover s Educated and Ivan Doig s This House of Sky comes a memoir about a girl s isolated ranch childhood and her adulthood journey to overcome grief and fear and discover the truth about her mother s mental illness At the age of eight Linda Lockwood moves with her family to an isolated ranch in eastern Washington State Within two years she s patrolling the ranch on horseback alongside her border collie herding sheep killing rattlesnakes and defending the ranch s livestock from coyotes bears and even trespassing hunters and working tirelessly to realize her dream of training horses But her most daunting challenge is one hard work can t overcome her mother is descending into madness And Linda s deepest fear is that she might inherit the schizophrenia that threatens to dismantle her family At age twenty five Linda marries but the joy of her first pregnancy is darkened by her mother's suicide. Then she endures a painful miscarriage and the death of her beloved grandmother—traumatic events that send her back in time to the births and deaths of animals domesticated and wild that she loved in childhood. Eventually her own family grows but her happiness is haunted by questions people have tiptoed around all her life: How did her mother become schizophrenic? What did she endure as a patient in 1960s mental hospitals? Might Linda and even her children be next to battle that catastrophic mental disorder? Driven by the courage and will she sharpened as a rancher, Linda vows to find out.

The Vanishing Newspaper Philip Meyer, 2004 In The Vanishing Newspaper Philip Meyer offers the newspaper industry a business model for preserving and stabilizing the social responsibility functions of the press in a way that could outlast technology-driven changes in media forms. This influence model, as it is termed by Meyer, is based on the premise that a newspaper's main product is not news or information but influence: societal influence, which is not for sale, and commercial influence, which is. Meyer's model explores how the former enhances the value of the latter. Meyer has written this volume to be accessible to a wide audience, taking particular care to explain his statistical research and methodology. Teachers and students of journalism and business will find Meyer's research as well as his interviews with newspaper company executives and analysts of particular interest.

Rock, Ghost, Willow, Deer Allison Hedge Coke, 2004-01-01 A name creates life patterns. Allison Adelle Hedge Coke writes which form and shape a life: my life like my name must have been formed many times over then handed to me to realize. Rock, Ghost, Willow, Deer is Hedge Coke's narrative of that realization: the award-winning poet and writer's searching account of her life as a mixed-blood woman coming of age off reservation yet deeply immersed in her Cherokee and Huron heritage. In a style at once elliptical and achingly clear, Hedge Coke describes her schizophrenic mother and the abuse that often overshadowed her childhood; the torments visited upon her: the rape and physical violence and those she inflicted on herself: the alcohol and drug abuse. Yet she managed to survive with her dreams and her will, her sense of wonder and promise undiminished. The title Rock, Ghost, Willow, Deer refers to the life revelations that brought Hedge Coke through her trials: the melding of language and experience that has brought order to her life. In this book, Hedge Coke shares the insights she has gathered along the way: insights that touch on broader Native issues such as modern life in the diaspora, the threat of alcohol, drug abuse, and violence, and the ongoing onslaught on self amid a complex mixed heritage.

Literacy and Learning in the Content Areas Sharon Kane, 2017-07-05 The 3rd Edition of Literacy Learning in the Content Areas helps readers build the knowledge, motivation, tools, and confidence they need as they integrate literacy into their middle and high school content area classrooms. Its unique approach to teaching content area literacy actively engages preservice and practicing teachers in reading and writing and the very activities that they will use to teach literacy to their own students in middle and high school classrooms. Rather than passively learning about strategies for incorporating content area literacy activities readers get hands on experience in such techniques as mapping webbing anticipation guides booktalks class websites and journal writing and reflection Readers also learn how to integrate children s and young adult literature primary sources biographies essays poetry and online content communities and websites into their classrooms Each chapter offers concrete teaching examples and practical suggestions to help make literacy relevant to students content area learning Author Sharon Kane demonstrates how relevant reading writing speaking listening and visual learning activities can improve learning in content area subjects and at the same time help readers meet national content knowledge standards and benchmarks

Moving Learning Forward in Christian Schools Steven F. Butler, 2021-03-10 Are you ready to make changes in your Christian school Moving Learning Forward in Christian Schools A Practical Guide for a Mission Focused Curriculum challenges those involved in Christian schools to consider changes to better prepare students to enter adulthood and impact the world Readers will gain insights into How current brain research about how the brain learns can be put into practice in classrooms How Christian schools can be much more mission focused than they currently are An excellent framework to shift Christian schools instructional programs from skills and knowledge textbook based curriculum to focusing on understanding and transfer with improved curriculum instruction and assessment A perfect platform for developing better integration of biblical concepts in all subject areas How the six Facets of Understanding from Understanding by Design provide a vehicle to intentionally include the development of personal characteristics that are Bible based and often related to the school s mission A wonderful guideline for helping Christian schools think systemically about changes needed and for developing a three to five year strategic plan for improving the instructional program This is your opportunity to consider concrete and practical ideas for school improvement
