What's Bred in the Bone Robertson Davies, 2008. Francis Cornish was always good at keeping secrets. From the well hidden family secret of his childhood to his mysterious encounters with a small town embalmer, a master art restorer, a Bavarian countess and various masters of espionage, the events in Francis' life were not always what they seemed. In this wonderfully ingenious portrait of an art expert and collector of international renown, Robertson Davies has created a spellbinding tale of artistic triumph and heroic deceit. It is a tale told in stylish elegant prose, endowed with lavish portions of Davies' wit and wisdom.

I Ching John Minford, 2014-10-30. The award winning new translation of the ancient Chinese oracle and book of wisdom by the acclaimed translator of the Tao Te Ching and The Art of War. Pose a question, then toss three coins or cast your yarrow stalks to access the time honored wisdom of the I Ching. The I Ching or Book of Change has been consulted through the ages in both China and the West for answers to fundamental questions about the world and our place in it. The oldest extant book of divination, it dates back three thousand years to ancient shamanistic practices involving the ritual preparation of the shoulder bones of oxen. From this early form of communication with the other world, it has become the Chinese spiritual book par excellence. An influence on such cultural icons as Bob Dylan, John Cage, Merce Cunningham, Philip K. Dick and Philip Pullman, the I Ching is turned to by millions around the world for insights on spiritual growth, business, medicine, genetics, game theory, strategic thinking and leadership, and of course for the window it opens on China. This new translation, over a decade in the making, is informed by the latest archaeological discoveries and features a gorgeously rendered codex of divination signs, the I Ching's sixty-four Tarot-like hexagrams. It captures the majesty and mystery of this legendary work and charts an illuminating path to self knowledge.
