

A close-up photograph of a person's foot stepping onto a soft, white surface, likely snow. The foot is positioned in the upper center of the frame, and a deep, clear impression of the foot's shape is visible in the snow directly beneath it. The lighting is soft and diffused, creating a gentle, melancholic atmosphere. The overall color palette is dominated by the white of the snow and the muted tones of the foot and the surrounding environment.

When I Forgot Elina Hirvonen:

When I Forgot Elina Hirvonen, 2009-05-05 When I Forgot is an astonishingly assured and compelling debut novel about the love siblings have for each other the past they share and the painful memories that shape their lives forever An astonishingly assured and compelling debut When I Forgot explores the relationship between a sister and her brother the past that they share and the painful memories that shape their lives forever Anna is on her way to the hospital where her brother has been institutionalized when she falters and in that pause her world splinters in a blazing display of memory and madness of childhood security treasured and shattered and of families blighted by psychological trauma her brother's and that of her boyfriend's father a Vietnam vet September 11 serves as a backdrop for the story and the Finnish perspective on America and its politics is as uncomfortable as it is compelling In Elina Hirvonen's skillful hands the grimness is illuminated by firecracker insight and surprising beauty And above all there is hope When Time Runs Out Elina

Hirvonen, 2017-10-19 The world is on the brink of catastrophe If we lose hope in a better future what are we left with A young man is shooting people from a rooftop in downtown Helsinki An unsuspecting mother is confronted with a horrifying scenario she's powerless to stop A sister can only watch events unfold from afar Over the course of a day one family fractures and with lives at stake each member must examine everything that brought them to this moment But this crisis goes beyond their small lives Aslak is not the only boy on a rooftop with a gun today He is part of an international group set on stopping environmental disaster by killing as many of those they deem responsible as they can Can a desperate mother reconcile her complicated feelings towards her son and reach him in time to stop a catastrophe This is the story of the lives on the brink and finding hope in the face of despair The Brothers Seven Aleksis Kivi, 2017-01-16 Seitsemän veljestä The Brothers Seven the 1870 Finnish novel by Aleksis Kivi 1834-1872 is one of the most famous unknown classics of world literature unknown not only because so few people in the world can read Finnish but also because the novel is so incredibly difficult to translate the Mount Everest of translating from Finnish It is difficult to translate not only because it blends a saturation in Homer Shakespeare Dante Cervantes and the Bible with a brilliantly stylized form of local dialect but because it is wild grotesque carnivalistic and laugh out loud funny on every page It has been translated 58 times into 34 languages but somehow the translations always seem to fall short of their flamboyant original Douglas Robinson's new translation is a bold attempt to remedy that He aims to make Kivi as rhythmic as alliterative as brash as grotesque and as funny in English as he is in Finnish Since Kivi deliberately used an archaic Finnish but used it playfully and since Kivi was steeped in Shakespeare to the point of memorizing whole plays Robinson translates him into a playful Shakespearean register As he notes in his Preface this makes the translation a bit difficult to read but the original is difficult for Finns to read as well and the Finnish readers who love Kivi and that is most of them read him with pleasure despite the words they don't know because his prose is so intensely alive Storytelling and Ethics Hanna Meretoja, Colin Davis, 2017-09-18 In recent years there has been a huge amount of both popular and academic interest in storytelling as something that is an essential part of not only literature and art but also our everyday lives as well as our dreams fantasies aspirations historical self understanding and political actions The question of the ethics of storytelling always inevitably lurks behind these discussions though most frequently it remains implicit rather than explicit This volume explores the ethical potential and risks of storytelling from an interdisciplinary perspective It stages a dialogue between contemporary literature and visual arts across media film photography performative arts interdisciplinary theoretical perspectives debates in narrative studies trauma studies cultural memory studies ethical criticism and history traumatic histories of violence cultural history The collection analyses ethical issues involved in different strategies employed in literature and art to narrate experiences that resist telling and imagining such as traumatic historical events including war and political conflicts The chapters explore the multiple ways in which the ethics of storytelling relates to the contemporary arts as they work with draw on and contribute to historical imagination The book foregrounds the connection between remembering and imagining and explores the ambiguous role of narrative in the configuration of selves communities and the relation to the non human While discussing the ethical aspects of storytelling it also reflects on the relevance of artistic storytelling practices for our understanding of ethics Making an original contribution to interdisciplinary narrative studies and narrative ethics this book both articulates a complex understanding of how artistic storytelling practices enable critical distance from culturally dominant narrative practices and analyzes the limitations and potential pitfalls of storytelling Chapter 7 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Nordic Utopias and Dystopias Pia Maria Ahlbäck, Jouni Teittinen, Maria Lassén-Seger, 2022-11-24 The Nordic countries have long been subject to certain idealised even utopian imaginaries particularly with regard to images of pristine nature and the societal ideals of democracy equality and education On the other hand such projections inevitably invite dissent irony and intimations of the utopia's dark underside Things may yet take or may have already taken a dystopic course The present volume offers twelve contributions on utopias and dystopias in Nordic literature and culture Geographically the articles cover the Nordic countries of Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden as well as the autonomous area of Greenland Through the articles varied subjects ranging from avant garde literature and long poems to noir TV series young adult fiction popular historiography and political discourse in literature outside of Norden the volume brings forth a historically rich multi layered picture of social cultural and environmental imagination in the Nordic countries Nordic Utopias and Dystopias is thus of interest not only to specialists in dystopian and utopian research but more broadly to scholars of literature and culture and the political and social sciences especially but not exclusively in the Nordic context

The Translator- Centered Multidisciplinary Construction Lin Zhu, 2012 This book embraces the epistemological and methodological issues of theoretical construction in the field of Translation Studies from a historical and global perspective The theoretical stances are explained in detail through a systemic inquiry into the constructive aspects of theoretical innovation of the American translation theorist Douglas Robinson In order to renew and promote theoretical thinking in the field of Translation Studies this book aims to reflect on existing theoretical problems in translation trace the translation theorist's innovative and constructive ways of thinking about translation theory and explore productive philosophical and theoretical resources of translation studies This book will not only be helpful to a further and full understanding of Robinson's thoughts on translation but also offers a rethinking of how to advance Translation Studies epistemologically and methodologically

Northern Lights B. J. Epstein, 2009 This volume is a collection of essays based on papers given at the Nordic Translation Conference which took place in London in March 2008 The purpose of the collection is twofold First it serves to place the Nordic languages firmly into the field of translation studies where hitherto little research has focused on the Nordic region the essays include many Nordic specific studies and ideas Second the book presents research and conclusions which are relevant to translation studies in all languages and cultures Therefore this volume which covers a wide range of Nordic languages and both literary and non literary topics is
