C. Abel, Thomas Harrison Cummings, Wilfred A. French, A. H. Beardsley, 1929      The Expositor, 1919      Modern Mathematics Dirk De Bock, 2023-03-08 The international New Math developments between about 1950 through 1980 are regarded by many mathematics educators and education historians as the most historically important development in curricula of the twentieth century It attracted the attention of local and international politicians of teachers and of parents and influenced the teaching and learning of mathematics at all levels kindergarten to college graduate in many nations After garnering much initial support it began to attract criticism But as Bill Jacob and the late Jerry Becker show in Chapter 17 some of the effects became entrenched This volume edited by Professor Dirk De Bock of Belgium provides an outstanding overview of the New Math modern mathematics movement Chapter authors provide exceptionally high quality analyses of the rise of the movement and of subsequent developments within a range of nations The first few chapters show how the initial leadership came from mathematicians in European nations and in the United States of America The background leaders in Europe were Caleb Gattegno and members of a mysterious group of mainly French pure mathematicians who since the 1930s had published under the name of a fictitious Nicolas Bourbaki In the United States there emerged during the 1950s various attempts to improve U S mathematics curricula and teaching especially in secondary schools and colleges This side of the story climaxed in 1957 when the Soviet Union succeeded in launching Sputnik the first satellite Undoubtedly this is a landmark publication in education The foreword was written by Professor Bob Moon one of a few other scholars to have written on the New Math from an international perspective The final epilogue chapter by Professor Geert Vanpaemel a historian draws together the overall thrust of the volume and makes links with the general history of curriculum development especially in science education including recent globalization trends      Record of Christian Work Alexander McConnell, William Revell Moody, Arthur Percy Fitt, 1914 Includes music      Language Teachers at Work Zhan Li, 2020-06-13 This book examines a ubiquitous yet under researched area of language education i e language teachers use of curriculum materials It particularly focuses on EFL teachers use of prescribed curriculum materials in higher education in Mainland China and presents a qualitative multi case study involving four Chinese EFL teachers and eight students two students from each teacher's class at one university in Mainland China Drawing on data from pre lesson and post lesson interviews with the teachers lesson observations and documents in three consecutive semesters at the target university the book delineates the processes of materials use in classroom settings It also identifies four domains of factors that influenced the enactment of curriculum materials Most importantly by adopting Vygotsky's 1978 mediation theory and Remillard's 2005 participatory perspective the book constructs a curriculum enactment mediation model to reveal the complex and mediated relations among teachers learners curriculum materials and context It also recommends practical implications for materials developers teacher educators administrators and policymakers      Big Data Analytics for Cyber-Physical System in Smart City Mohammed Atiquzzaman, Neil Yen, Zheng Xu, 2020-01-11 This book gathers a selection of peer reviewed papers presented at the first Big Data Analytics for Cyber Physical System in Smart City BDCPS 2019 conference held in Shengyang China on 28-29 December 2019. The contributions prepared by an international team of scientists and engineers cover the latest advances made in the field of machine learning and big data analytics methods and approaches for the data driven co design of communication computing and control for smart cities. Given its scope it offers a valuable resource for all researchers and professionals interested in big data smart cities and cyber physical systems.

Effective Early Years Education Edwards, Anne, Knight, Peter, 1994-12-01. In this concise and accessible guide the authors are sympathetic to the particular demands of teaching three to eight year olds and offer practical solutions to the complex issues that are currently faced by early years educators. In recognizing the demands on practitioners they provide new and challenging frameworks for an understanding of the practice of teaching young children and draw upon international research to offer a sound model of early years subject structured teaching which has the quality of children's learning at its centre. Their aim is to support teacher expertise through stimulating teachers thinking about children's development, motivation, ways of learning and the subjects they teach. These topics are clearly set in the complex institutional settings in which practitioners work and ways of taking and evaluating action are offered.

School and Home Education, 1917. Illinois Education, 1916. The Public School Journal, 1917.

Hermeneutics and Catechesis Robert J. Hurley, 1997. This work examines aspects of a religious education program published by Paulist Press in the 1960s and 1970s, the 'Come to the Father' series. This is the only study of this major catechetical series. The author examines the interpretation of the Bible in a confessional setting and explores the history of the modern catechetical renewal in Canada and beyond. The author also critiques the way in which the 'Come to the Father' series exploits the reader's experience in its interpretation of the Bible.
