

The background of the slide is a photograph of a vast, golden wheat field. The wheat stalks are in sharp focus in the foreground, creating a textured, rhythmic pattern of light and dark gold. In the distance, the field stretches to a flat horizon under a bright, glowing sun. The sun is positioned in the upper center, casting a warm, orange-yellow light across the entire scene, which softens the edges of the wheat and creates a serene, hopeful atmosphere.

Silvers examines the state of the world from the church's perspective Through this discussion she addresses a conundrum Is the church in America largely ineffective today because of the depraved state of our society or is our society in that corrupt state because the church is largely ineffective Silvers uses personal anecdotes and stories from Scripture to present her ideas about leaving a legacy of Christian values for modern youth Somebody Forgot to Tell the Kids examines how our world has become what it has and provides solutions for turning it around and beginning to minister the grace and compassion of Jesus to a broken nation Silvers shows how it took only one man on Mount Carmel to set a nation on a new path one faith-filled man who was willing to step out from the crowd and obey the Lord Will there be one of these for America
