EXERCISES

1 Passing the ball towards the partner moving circle wise

Commentary The player passes the ball to the partner moving circle wise The partner may run clockwise and anticlockwise This is a complex coordinating exercise because it requires complex skills while running circle wise the player must play a good return pass hitting the ball on the volley The type of the pass is varied instep shot toe kick with the left outer instep with the right outer instep with the left outside of the foot with the right outside of the foot with the left inner instep with the right inner instep The main task of the players to play well placed passes The main difficulty of the exercise is that the distance between the partners changes as one of them is constantly moving Serving passes the players must calculate the flying path of the ball and the shot power according to the distance between them

2 Shots on small goals

Commentary This exercise helps to train home shots and agility Players occupy the positions shown in the scheme and play shots on small goals The number of the balls is the same as the number of the shots player A four balls player four balls player three balls The players shot balls simultaneously The distance between the players and the small goals can be changed Mind that the shot power depends on the distance The main task of the players As the goals are set in different places they must coordinate the flying path of the ball and the shot power to make their shots well placed The players may also practice different shot types instep shot toe kick with the left outer instep with the right outer instep with the left outside of the foot with the right outside of the foot with the left inner instep with the right inner instep

Corner kick the scheme presents three variants of corner kick actions development with players occupying the same positions The quick counterattack requires intelligent running exhaustive physical effort and good passing and dribbling skill The man to man defense ideology holds that almost all opponents need to be marked at all times although they will have to keep an eye on zone considerations as well and usually a sweeper will be given a free defensive role In practice however every defense will be a mix of zone defense and a man to man defense although often with heavy leanings towards one or the other

Youth Sport and Social Capital Sean F. Brown, 2020-06-04 This book examines the youth sport parent experience through the lens of social capital a cornerstone social science concept of the past 30 years Social capital reflects the value of one's social networks and the actual and potential benefits and costs of relationships Bringing together a team of kids for a season also brings together their families who all must negotiate this new social world Within this world relationships are bound to form and these are the foundation upon which this project rests Youth sport scholars have traditionally been interested in questions such as how many kids play sports what sports they play how and why do they start playing and stop playing and the costs and benefit of participation However aside from sensational examples of youth sport parents behaving badly scholars know far less about the parental experience This time is meaningful for parents because parents often spend as much or even more time at the fields than their children It is thus worth examining what they might get out of this investment Utilizing two years of fieldwork and over 30 interviews with parents and board members of a youth baseball league in the southwestern United States this book provides an inside look at the beneficial relationships that can be found in the bleachers of a kids baseball game as well as the unseen high stakes games waged in the boardroom where relationships can carry heavy costs as well This book was originally published as a special issue of Sport in Society
