Tooth And Claw English Edition:

The Great Wall of Confinement Philip F. Williams, Yenna Wu, 2004-08-17 China is so big and so diverse that as in the proverbial blind man touching an elephant contemporary descriptions that vary dramatically can all be true Few visitors to glittering Shanghai or Shenzhen for example will get any impression of the gaping gray maw of the government's prison camp system that Philip Williams and Yenna Wu basing themselves on a vast range of Chinese sources illuminate in erudite detail The authors look at every facet of the camps place them within China's historical tradition and compare them with modern analogues Throughout literary and autobiographical sources give the feel for the deadening world of the camps Perry Link author of The Uses of Literature Life in the Socialist Chinese Literary System The Great Wall of Confinement deals with issues ranging from the legal grounding or the lack of any of the Chinese concentration camp system to its technical implementation its discursive manifestation and its physical as well as psychological impact A book like this is long overdue With this work Williams and Wu have made an important contribution to the fields of Chinese legal and literary studies David Der wei Wang author of The Monster That Is History The Great Wall of Confinement is an excellent book It synthesizes an already significant corpus of writings on Chinese prisons and labor camps marshals an array of literary sources as essential historical source materials and compares the literature of Chinese incarceration with its Soviet and European counterparts The value of this important study stems equally from its tone a rare combination of a level headed quality with a very fine sensitivity to the human tragedy recounted in this literature Jean Luc Domenach author of O va la Chine Where does China Go The Great Wall of Confinement has attempted to lift part of the veil on China's long lasting tragedy the use of imprisonment torture forced labor against its citizens whether criminals feeble minded or simply political opponents The angle is new the question is to find out how Chinese have written on this subject whether in fiction or reportage the way they went about telling their stories how much they said or withheld Through Philip Williams and Yenna Wu's thought provoking analysis of such writings of the cultural origins of forced labor and imprisonment in imperial and Communist China one comes closer to this sinister reality which remains to this day one of the best kept secrets of our planet Marie Holzman President of the Association Solidarit Chine

The Black Flies of Subtropical and Tropical Asia Hiroyuki Takaoka, 2024-07-30 This book uncovers the entire picture of the black fly Diptera Simuliidae fauna in subtropical and tropical Asia the Oriental Region Increased discoveries of new species of black flies in the Oriental Region have disclosed a remarkable diversity in terms of phylogenetic lineages and morphological features particularly adult genitalia and pupal gills. The black fly fauna in the Oriental Region is found to be completely different from those in other regions. The book has two aims: academic and practical. Introduction provides the general information on the biology and effects on human and animal health and welfare of black flies and introduces the unique characteristics of the black fly fauna in this region. Chapter 2 proposes a classification scheme for all 675 named and 44 unnamed species of Oriental black flies which are placed in 11 subgenera and 36 species groups of the genus Simulium. In Chapter 3 synoptic accounts are given for their distribution, bionomics and taxonomic comments of all the species. In Chapter 4 the faunas of black flies in 15 countries or areas: India, Nepal, Bhutan, Sri Lanka, Myanmar, Thailand, Peninsular Malaysia, Borneo, Sunda Archipelago, Sumatra, Java, Bali, Lombok, Sumbawa, Flores, and Timor, East Indonesia, Sulawesi, Maluku Islands, and Irian Jaya, Vietnam, Philippines, Taiwan, South China, Nansei Islands, Japan, are overviewed and species lists and identification keys for females, males, pupae and larvae are constructed. Ninety-eight figures of 1,691 line drawings highlight various unique morphological characteristics of most subgenera and species groups. Chapters 2 and 3 are academically essential for medical or biological scientists and students to study black flies. Keys to identify species in 15 countries or areas in Chapter 4 are of practical use for health workers for the control of insects of medical and veterinary importance as well as for ecologists for the study of aquatic invertebrates. Many novel morphological characteristics illustrated in the figures appeal to readers and show the importance of biodiversity of natural terrestrial ecosystems. Contents of this book resulted from the author's taxonomic review of all 719 Oriental species of black flies with reference to 486 publications.
