Playing the Changes Darius Brubeck,Catherine Brubeck,2024-07-23 Catherine and Darius Brubeck s 1983 move to South Africa launched them on a journey that helped transform jazz education Blending biography with storytelling the pair recount their time at the University of KwaZulu Natal where they built a pioneering academic program in jazz music and managed and organized bands concerts and tours around the world The Brubecks and the musicians faced innumerable obstacles from the intensification of apartheid and a lack of resources to the hardscrabble lives that forced even the most talented artists to the margins Building a program grounded in multi culturalism Catherine and Darius encouraged black and white musicians to explore and expand the landscape of South African jazz together Their story details the sometimes wily sometimes hilarious problem solving necessary to move the institution forward while offering insightful portraits of South African jazz players at work on stage and providing a soundtrack to the freedom struggle and its aftermath Frank and richly detailed Playing the Changes provides insiders accounts of how jazz intertwined with struggle and both expressed and resisted the bitter unfairness of apartheid era South Africa City Blues Andrew Faull,2008 Managing African Conflicts

Louis Du Plessis,Michael Hough,2000 In the last years of the twentieth century military interventions by states in the conflicts occurring in other countries dominated television news on Africa Military units from Nigeria or Gambia Ghana or Guinea were patrolling the streets of Monrovia the capital of Liberia Armoured vehicles from South Africa and Botswana lumbered up and down the main streets of Lesotho s capital Maseru Soldiers from Zimbabwe and Angola assisted those from the Democratic Republic of Congo DRC to defend the Congolese capital against rebel insurgents supported by Ugandan Rwandan and Burundian forces Those who observed the camouflaged uniforms and wished to understand something more of these events were inevitably puzzled by many questions Some of these questions were Why are the armed forces of so many African states intervening in the domestic affairs of their neighbours What are these armed forces actually doing on foreign soil Why are so many African conflicts continuing from year to year thereby inevitably inviting and attracting intervention

And finally what kinds of theoretical and legal conceptual frameworks will help observers understand the nature of such military interventions
