Scotland: Cycle, Camp, Eat... Repeat Finnian Bicycle,2024-10-17 Scotland What a country Being from the North of Ireland there is fairly easy access to the country via the ferry service which departs from Belfast several times a day and with a bicycle arrive follow their instructions load the bicycle and take a seat Arrive and well the road network is fairly simple once out of the terminal there are two choices right or left north or south Part One of this jaunt I chose the left and ended up in Wick North East of the country Could have gone further but was a Friday heavy traffic on the single carriageway Part Two I took a right and followed the Scottish border to the capital Edinburgh via Dumfries and small villages until destination reached Part Three Edinburgh to Aberdeen where I left the bicycle in for a service and the MicroSD card fragmented hence minimal photographs Part Four I returned to Aberdeen and made my way back to Wick Stunning landscapes throughout Would recommend the West coast of Scotland as a cycle Right from the port stunning views all over Some inclines scattered throughout but once you move over them fairly powerful coasting from there This is Ireland in Scotland Jane's All the
