

The Daily Report Card

Adapt this form (or print as is) and ask the teacher to use it on a daily basis to monitor progress.

THE DAILY REPORT CARD TARGETS PROBLEM BEHAVIORS in the classroom. The goals should be tailored to each child's individual needs. (For more details on setting up a DRC, click the link under "How to Establish a Daily Report Card" at ccf.flu.edu/about/resources/index.html.) The main areas to focus on are academic productivity, following classroom rules, peer relationships, and teacher relationships. Every day the teacher marks down how well the child meets his/her goals for the day, and the parent gives a reward at home for positive DRC performance. This tool encourages home-school communication on a daily basis.
