The Routledge International Handbook of Teacher and School Development Christopher Day, 2012 The contributions are authoritative and of high quality This is an important resource The Teacher Trainer A seminal state of the art critical review of teacher and school development which touches upon and discusses issues at both policy and practice levels

Rooted in Belonging Melissa Sherfinski, 2023 Most

practitioners and scholars agree that critical and reflective early childhood and elementary teachers are foundational for children's holistic growth and development. Yet current policies focused on elevating testing and performativity are contributing to student and teacher anxiety and alienation. This book offers a counternarrative to neoliberal standardized preservice teacher development and assessment processes. The author examines how a cohort of teacher educators worked alongside their preservice teachers, both groups predominately White and female, to redesign their teacher education program. Sherfinski reveals how the narrative portfolio, an inquiry-based alternative to accreditation and standards-based assessments, was designed to locally document, resist, and disrupt the status quo. The narrative portfolio speaks back to standardized preservice teacher assessments by providing spaces for teacher candidates to demonstrate their knowledge of theory and practice as enacted in the natural settings of school and community. Rooted in Belonging shows why humanizing democratic place-based practices should be at the forefront of teacher education. Book Features Provides a rare portrait of equity-based teacher education at the confluence of place-based approaches, student diversity, and teacher education. Grapples with tough issues such as how the shared Whiteness of preservice teachers and children and their families play out alongside their differences. Explores how educators negotiate deep ideological differences while still preparing teachers for critical work. Examines how the current political climate around Black Lives Matters, the 2020 presidential election, and the COVID-19 pandemic contribute to the challenges of working in communities. Discusses how race, space, time, and settler colonialism shape the work of preservice teachers and their teacher educators. Shares action research and teacher leadership assignments, critical thinking and planning exercises, personal reflections, and preservice teachers' narrative portfolio artifacts.

Teaching Young Adult Literature Today Judith A. Hayn, Jeffrey S. Kaplan, 2012-03-15 Teaching Young Adult Literature Today introduces the reader to what is current and relevant in the plethora of good books available for adolescents. More importantly, literary experts illustrate how teachers everywhere can help their students become lifelong readers by simply introducing them to great reads: smart, insightful, and engaging books that are specifically written for adolescents. Hayn, Kaplan, and their contributors address a wide range of topics: how to avoid common obstacles to using YAL; selecting quality YAL for classrooms while balancing these with curriculum requirements; engaging disenfranchised readers; pairing YAL with technology as an innovative way to teach curriculum standards across all content areas. Contributors also discuss more theoretical subjects such as the absence of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning LGBTQ young adult literature in secondary classrooms and contemporary YAL that responds to the changing expectations of digital generation readers who want to blur the boundaries between page and screen.

impact teaching practice Canadian Social Studies Canada's National Social Studies Journal Volume 45 Issue 1 Award American Educational Studies Association AERA Critics Choice Book Award 2011 This edited collection begins with the assertion that there are emergent and provocative theories and practices that should be part of the discourse on social studies education in the 21st century Anarchist eco activist anti capitalist and other radical perspectives such as disability studies and critical race theory are explored as viable alternatives in responding to current neo conservative and neo liberal educational policies shaping social studies curriculum and teaching Despite the interdisciplinary nature the field and a historical commitment to investigating fundamental social issues such as democracy human rights and social justice social studies theory and practice tends to be steeped in a reproductive framework celebrating and sustaining the status quo encouraging passive acceptance of current social realities and historical constructions rather than a critical examination of alternatives These tendencies have been reinforced by education policies such as No Child Left Behind which have narrowly defined ways of knowing as rooted in empirical science and apolitical forms of comprehension This book comes at a pivotal moment for radical teaching and for critical pedagogy bringing the radical debate occurring in social sciences and in activist circles where global protests have demonstrated the success that radical actions can have in resisting rigid state hierarchies and oppressive regimes worldwide to social studies education Teacher Education Yearbook XXV Nancy P. Gallavan, LeAnn
