A Critical Analysis of National Apprenticeship Training Scheme (NATS) and It's Employability on Technical Graduates: A Case Study of the Eastern Region. DR. S.M. EJAZ AHMAD,2024-12-17

Human resource development policies place a strong emphasis on training and skill improvement The scale of India s present technical training infrastructure is less than what is needed There is also a sizable skill gap between what the market requires in terms of skills and what graduate and diploma programs have to offer Not only is it difficult to establish a significant quantitative expansion of skill training facilities but it s also difficult to improve their quality which is a work that is just as significant The institutional level s capacity for educational and training programs is insufficient to meet the rising demand for the necessary skill sets knowledge and experience Apprenticeships have great promise in fostering our youths starting at the school level especially with several industries experiencing significant skills deficits in the future The National Apprenticeship Training Scheme NATS in India which promotes learning by earning and learning by doing is a potent tool for skill development Important changes have been made to The Apprentices Act 1961 to help freshly graduated students who are joining the workforce receive industrial training and exposure to contemporary industrial procedures The BOAT Boards of Apprenticeship Training situated in Mumbai Kanpur Chennai and the BOPT Board of Practical Training headquartered in Kolkata are the four independent regional organizations through which the Ministry of Education MoE implements the program Despite its significance and the crucial role that skill development plays in the economy it has been discovered that the topic has not recently been investigated Therefore it was crucial to investigate the facts of the apprentices job and training experiences and the business community s opinions regarding NATS and the subject matter of such a scheme

Additionally it will assist policymakers academicians and industrialists in comprehending the gaps and choosing their future course of action

A CRITICAL ANALYSIS OF THE NATIONAL APPRENTICESHIP TRAINING SCHEME NATS ON EMPLOYABILITY OF TECHNICAL GRADUATES A CASE STUDY OF THE EASTERN REGION has been published The report includes data from numerous stakeholders as well The main areas of focus for the investigation were skill and employability development the role of industries in closing trainees skill gaps the level of awareness about NATS amongst the passing graduates and successful industry institute collaboration through set schedules targeted group discussions and spontaneous dialogues

Advancing Online Course Design and Pedagogy for the 21st Century Learning Environment Chatham, Daniel, 2021-01-08 The current learning environment is substantially different than what existed for most of the 20th century Learners and teachers today must navigate in perpetually changing contexts where education is influenced by technological advancement and obsolescence economic barriers a changing employment landscape and even international politics Studies indicate that employers seek to hire graduates with strong skills in areas coalescing around international awareness creativity communication leadership and teamwork Skills and experiences in these areas are necessary preparation for the current economy and to pursue jobs that do not exist yet while providing some insulation against the obsolescence of industries that lack these characteristics These interpersonal skills are not often the subject of students degrees yet there are opportunities in online education to cultivate them With increased interest in new career options comes the need to reconsider how to teach subjects in the increasingly online environment Advancing Online Course Design and Pedagogy for the 21st Century Learning Environment is a critical reference book that navigates today s dynamic education requirements and provides examples of how online learning can foster growth in skill areas necessary for career advancement through effective course design Moreover it helps educators gain insight into online pedagogy and course design for the 21st century learner and prepares them to convert traditional courses and enhance existing online courses thereby supporting students growth and development in the highly dynamic online learning environment Focusing on specific learning activities assessments engagement communication techniques and more this book provides a valuable resource for those seeking to upgrade teaching and learning into the online environment those that seek better employment outcomes for their students and those seeking to explore contemporary online course design strategies or examples This includes teachers instructional designers curriculum developers academicians researchers and students Beyond Kolkata Ishita

Dey,Ranabir Samaddar,Suhit K. Sen,2016-03-23 This book examines the politics behind and the socio economic and ecological repercussions of the making of a new township variously called New Town Megacity or Jyoti Basu Nagar in Rajarhat near Kolkata Conceived by the West Bengal state government in the mid 1990s in pandering to the vision of urban planners of creating a hi tech town beyond an unruly crowded Kolkata and feeding the hunger of realtors and developers the city is built on the foundations of coercive even violent land acquisition state largesse and corruption and at the cost of erasing a self sufficient subsistence economy and despoiling a fragile environment Yet after its completion and departure of construction labour the new town appears as a necropolis a ghost city that belies its promised image of an urban utopia even as the displaced locals lead a precarious mobile existence as transit labour engaged in odd and informal jobs Written on the basis of intensive fieldwork government documents court records and chronicles of public protests this book broadly analyses the politics and economics of urbanisation in the age of post colonial capitalism particularly the paradoxical combination of neoliberal and primitive modes of capital accumulation upon which the global emergence of new towns is based Departing from the dominant styles of urban studies that focus on cultural or spatial analysis of cities the authors show the links between changes in space technology political economy class composition and forms of urban politics which give concrete shape to a city It will immensely interest those in sociology political science economics development studies urban studies policy and governance studies and history Indian National Bibliography B.
