The Glory of Iqbal Abul Hasan Ali Nadwi, 2022-03-13 Iqbal's poems established him as a rising poet on the literary horizon of the subcontinent. His brilliance later dazzled the eyes of people living in distant countries and won for him an honourable place amongst the immortal poets of the world. It was after his return from Europe that he started his real poetic career. His transitory period was over. His ideas had matured and he had formulated his outlook on human aspects which lasted throughout his life. Asraari Khudi, Secrets of Self and Rumuzi Bekhudi (Mysteries of Selflessness) thrilled the literary circles of the East and the West. These poems deliver the message he has for mankind and deal with the development of the individual self and the problems an individual faces as a member of society.

The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute, 1993 The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness. Eileen Bowser, Museum of Modern Art Film Department, comments on previous volumes: "The source of last resort for finding socially valuable films that received such scant attention that they seem lost until discovered in the AFI Catalog." Thomas Cripps: "Endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory." Arthur Schlesinger Jr.
