Protest in South Africa Heidi Brooks, Rekgotsofetse Chikane, 2024-01-23 Popular protest has become a regular feature of post 1994 South Africa. As a young democracy born out of resistance we may understand the contemporary manifestations of protest as extensions of this broader history. However it is notably in the context of formal democratic institutions that popular protest has become an increasingly normalised mode of influencing policy demanding service delivery and forcing change. Protest is constitutive of South Africa's democratic politics but also reflective of it. Protest in South Africa: Rejection reassertion reclamation explores the underpinnings of contemporary protest and both its short term causes and structural drivers. Focusing on the surge of protest from the mid 2000s this edited volume provides an overview of the complexity of protest action the diversity of protest spaces and actors and responses to protest from both citizens and state. The volume situates its analysis against the backdrop of the global wave of protest witnessed since the turn of the 21st century while examining protest in South Africa's local and historical contexts. Contributors to the volume examine protests in relation to among other factors provision of infrastructure and services contestations around socio economic development issues of citizenship and demands for inclusive democratic governance. Chapters also examine the role of women in protest action the policing of protest and the intersection of protest action with spaces of formal politics. The volume also alerts us to the darker side of protest and the destruction and division it may foment. It thus considers the prospects of South Africa's evolving sometimes violent protest terrain for social and state stability and democratic progress. In the diversity of spaces sectors and communities of interests in which collective action has emerged Protest in South Africa: Rejection reassertion reclamation shows how protest is underpinned by a rejection of the status quo a reassertion of interests and a reclaiming of the political and democratic space Resource

Sethibe, R. Steyn, Esme Mohammed, Renier Steyn, L.B. Nguenang, Mamorena Lucia Matsoso, Henry N. Ozuru, Julius Akaba, Patient Rambe, Edem Korku Agbobli, Henri-Vincent Ndjave-Ndjoy, Regis Muchemwa, Andre de la Harpe, Konosoang Mpiti, Ayodeji Afolayan, 2016-12-31 Cape Town South Africa 7 Sept 2016 8 Sept 2016 Theme Sustainable economies in the information economy Purpose To share the quality academic papers presented at the International Conference on Business and Management Dynamics ICBMD held from 7 to 8 September 2016 at African Pride Crystal Hotel and Spa in Cape Town As grey literature the proceedings are the contributions made by researchers at the conference and are considered the written record of the work that was presented to fellow conference delegates Methodology The methodology used varies from researcher to researcher but are suitable for the studies conducted Thus on the one hand studies that were subjective in nature used the interpretive paradigm where the qualitative approach adopted made use of the interview method to collect data On the other hand studies that were objectively inclined adopted the positivist philosophy and used survey questionnaires to collect data However there were some academic papers which used mixed methodology because of the nature of the study Whatever methodology used adhered to the ethos of the philosophies underpinning the methodology Contribution made to scholarship The articles come from individual researchers and each article in the proceedings is unique Mostly there is no general

argument leading from one contribution to the next However it is interesting to note that in the area of economic performance it was evident that real exchange rate and net foreign direct investment contribute more towards innovations in economic growth With regard to human capital development papers presented evidence that there exists a definite need to explore the phenomenon of personal branding as limited scientific academic research has been done within the field of personal branding or on elements of the topic Thus the outcome argues that personal branding has an influence on leadership style which in turn impacts on organisational performance and related hygiene factors Furthermore it was demonstrated that current methods or strategies for enforcing institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation have not been successful and as such new strategies are needed to reinforce efforts to nurture and invigorate the institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation With regard to technology and big data impact on organisational performance it was evident that system performance memory consumption and CPU utilisation can be used as criteria to compare and evaluate big data technologies to improve organisational performance Most of the articles contribution reemphasised technology education and training as a means of digitising business and improving effectiveness Target audience The target readership is academic researchers and business leaders who require access to the latest developments in the fields of economics information management business education development studies social sciences and technology It is also for policymakers and other stakeholders who need a better understanding of the impact of new developments on existing policies and regulations for their review or amendment
