address the myriad challenges besetting education but to also enhance the potential of leadership in action The book addresses an international audience by analysing conceptions of transformative leadership and should be read by anyone who is interested in education and educational leadership as well as the impact of neoliberal agendas on education and society It should also appeal to those interested in the philosophy of education Campus Student Activism, Politics, and Citizenship in the 21st Century Tshishonga, Ndwakhulu, 2025-04-03 Student activism and citizenship remain an integral part of the governance of academic institutions democratizing the learning environment and advancing democratic values and societal change As a result student activism has become a key aspect of the global higher education landscape Individually and through the student councils students have been at the forefront fighting for social justice and equality inside their academic institutions and in larger society by fusing activism with citizenship Through student activism and citizenship students demonstrate their power to keep governments responsible and in redirecting the voices of students in higher education s decision making processes Further exploration may afford students the opportunity to influence social change by partaking in educational policy reforms and broadening global sociopolitical and economic growth Campus Student Activism Politics and Citizenship in the 21st Century examines the dynamics of campus politics through student activism and citizenship perspectives academia public private and civil society sectors It explores how student leadership engages university society stakeholders including management and governance structures and student welfare and institutional policy reformation in defense of the rights and interests of students This book covers topics such as higher education political engagement and social justice and is a useful resource for policymakers government officials sociologists political scientists academicians and researchers Maximizing Nitrogen Fixation in Legumes as a Tool for Sustainable Agriculture Intensification Pilar Irisarri, Juan Imperial, Fernando Alfredo Lattanzi, Jorge Monza, Jose Palacios, Juan Sanjuan, Julie Grossman, 2022-01-17 Decolonisation after Democracy Laurence Piper, 2020-05-21 Decolonisation after Democracy addresses the provocative idea that we need to rid higher education of lingering forms of colonial knowledge This matters because in the colonial era much knowledge was put to the service of subjugating indigenous peoples and the assumptions from this era may linger into the present Examples of deep rooted and foundational forms of knowledge that carry colonial traits are normative binaries such as civilised and backward modern and traditional and rational and superstitious In addition some accounts of positive values like freedom equality justice and democracy may hide the assumption that the western experience is the norm from which other kinds are rendered imitations deviations or pathologies In this collection some of South Africa s leading political scientists and academics engage with the challenge of decolonising knowledge in the research and teaching of politics It includes new insights about the state international relations clientelism statesociety relations and land reform and introduces new ways to engage the colonial library curriculum reform and the marginality of historically black institutions Finally the contributors deal with the decolonial challenge posed by the FeesMustFall student movements reflecting on issues of revolutionary politics and gender and sexual violence This book was originally published as a special issue of Politikon
