Smokin' Hot in the South Melissa Cookston, 2016-05-10 The author of Smokin' in the Boys Room shares more than eighty-five Southern-influenced recipes enhanced with the cultural flavors of Mexico, France, and Asia. Melissa Cookston, the winningest woman in barbecue, judge on the Netflix hit American Barbecue Showdown and the only female seven-time barbecue world champion, is bringing the heat with her second cookbook. With the grill and smoker as her go-to tools, chef Melissa Cookston, named one of the most influential pitmasters in America by Fox News and one of the 25 Super Women in Business by the Memphis Business Journal in 2015, shares her all-new modern interpretations of traditional Southern ingredients and recipes. Melissa explains how the culinary traditions of the South, long a bastion of slow-simmered vegetables and deep-fried everything, have expanded in the last decade to embrace Southwestern flavors, Asian spices, and the French palate. The nine chapters venture beyond the competition and barbecue principles of her first book and focus on instilling flavor with fire, using fresh herbs and diversifying seasoning components in recipes that reflect the New South. She fire-roasts homegrown green tomatoes for a spicy take on a traditional pizza sauce and uses a barbecue smoker to add Southern nuance to porchetta. Also included are recipes for Butterbean Pate, Asian Pork Tenderloin with Watermelon Rind Pickles, and Minted Watermelon Salad. Deep South Burgers with Pimento Cheese and more. She also covers the tools, techniques, and ingredients needed to be successful grilling or smoking at home. This book will not leave you hungry.
