fascinating collaboration of compelling human stories by a well known author with powerful contemporary paintings by a high profile artist

Stations of the Cross Thomas R. Haney, 1999 Praying the Stations of the Cross enables us to walk in the footsteps of Jesus Christ himself Evidence dating as far back as the second century AD acknowledges the fact that Christians began this holy practice from the very earliest times in the Church The Stations of the Cross recall the passion and death of the savior They help us remember the great price that Jesus paid for our salvation In this book Father Haney provides three additional features to the traditional stations that help the reader become even more enriched by this practice a fresh emphasis on God's compassion through Scripture a series of new virtues associated with each station and a strong mediation applying each virtue to our contemporary society

The Story of the Cross Mary Joslin, Gail Newey, 2002 The Stations of the Cross is a traditional way of exploring the Easter story telling of the last walk that Jesus took to the cross and the people whom he encountered on the way The walk is re-enacted each Friday in Jerusalem and in churches worldwide especially on Good Friday

A Walk in Jerusalem John Peterson, 1998-02-15 Experience the Stations of the Cross as the Secretary General of the Anglican Communion provides a meditation and brief liturgy for each episode of the Passion story Learn the meaning of the Passion Narratives and receive the encouragement to live as Christ did Illustrated with a map photos and drawings All Proceeds from the sale of this book will benefit the bursary fund at St George's College Jerusalem

The Stations of the Cross Paul E. Hoffman, 2010-01-01 With simple narrative and lovely pictures this inspiring devotional resource follows Christ on his final journey to the cross Through it the ancient rite of the stations finds a post modern expression that is both fresh and poignant Supplemented with Scriptural texts this accessible set of devotions brings the wonder and mystery of Christ's compassion into the everyday lives of contemporary readers The Stations of the Cross is an excellent resource for Lenten studies individual devotional use sermon preparation or parish planning The inclusion of Hoffman's own photos of the ten stations from churches and cathedrals in Western Europe adds an extra element of wonder mystery and awe

The New Stations of the Cross Megan McKenna, 2007-12-18 One of today's most popular and respected Catholic writers presents the first guide to the new Stations of the Cross reflecting the revisions made by Pope John Paul II A traditional devotion for Catholics for more than four hundred years the Stations of the Cross commemorates the route Jesus traveled from being sentenced to death crucified and then buried in a borrowed tomb on the outskirts of Jerusalem In the past the devotion included a number of stations based on popular stories of piety and devotion but not mentioned in the Gospels Over the past eight years however Pope John Paul II has made substantial changes to the devotion in his Good Friday celebrations of the stations removing those not found in the Bible and replacing them with stations that more accurately follow scriptural accounts of Christ's passion The revised Stations of the Cross focuses on the condemned Jesus and on the community walking the way with him to the cross Unrelieved by stories like Veronica's wiping blood off the face of Jesus and his meeting with his mother this is a story of an execution The new stations deal directly with the pain suffering betrayal and injustice to which Jesus was subjected In explaining his reasons for revising the stations the Pope has said that the alterations are intended to serve as a model for other devotions and to encourage the return to the Scriptures as the source of and inspiration for contemporary worship In this helpful authoritative guide Megan McKenna presents the fourteen new stations with the scriptural passages that Pope John Paul II uses on Good Friday She also provides a basic introduction to the practices and reflections on the importance of the devotion for present day Catholics and Episcopalians

Stations of the Cross for Teenagers Gwen Costello, 1988 Here Father Stan walks children through the Stations and invites them to unite their thoughts and actions to those of Jesus
