A different way

Try the task in different ways

- Start with the torso touching, so the leader really needs to initiate the movement from the chest and the follower senses that movement.
- Make your transfers of weight smaller and smaller so that your weights shift but your feet do not leave the floor.
- With the follower closing their eyes but NOT the leader.

Technique tip
Each step takes one count. Try and keep the stability of the movement even that you are moving faster.

Practice task 3

Walks with your partner

- Stand in basic embrace. Keep the point of contact at the leader's chest.
- Leader transfer weight to right foot. (Follower transfer weight to left foot.)
- Leader step forward with left foot, leading the movement from chest.
Follower feel the movement start in the chest and when the leader steps forward then reply with a step backward with right foot.)
- Both collect feet to same position.
- Repeat the walk four times.
- Change weight in this position, but no four times.
- Repeat the steps and changes of weight again as many times as you can.
- Put on a glass of music and get lost in the atmosphere.
