Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh, 2014-09-11 Daily Graphic Yaw Boadu-Ayeboafah, 2005-10-26 Your Guide to Higher Education in Ghana Godfried Funkor, 2007 Children as Partners for Health Pat Pridmore, David Stephens, 2000-03 The Child to Child health education approach now in use in more than 80 countries views children as active promoters and not just receivers of health This is an exploration of how far such child centred philosophies can work in cultures where people do not necessarily share Western assumptions about the role of the child in society They analyze the theories and concepts underlying Child to Child and the reasons for its rapid spread Theory is then compared with practice drawing on case studies from both industrialised and Third World countries Lessons are drawn from its successes and failures implications made clear for policy makers planners implementers and evaluators and recommendations made for future action and research Readings in Arts, Culture, and Social Science Education M. O. Awoyemi, 2003 Core Competencies in Adolescent Health and Development for Primary Care Providers WHO, World Health Organization, 2015-03-31 The aim of this document is to help countries develop competency based educational programmes in adolescent health and development in both pre service and in service education In addition it provides guidance on how to assess and improve the structure content and quality of the adolescent health component of pre service curricula By fostering the capacity of health care providers in adolescent health care and development the document supports the implementation in countries of the Global Standards for Quality Health Care Services for Adolescents The ultimate goal of this competency framework is to increase the quality of health care services provided to adolescents by improving the education of primary health care providers Leadership for Learning , 2008-01-01 The impact of globalization is being felt in numerous spheres of educational policy and practice in rapid growth of information and communication technologies in economic transformation and international market competition all of which conspire to create new demands and place new pressures on school leadership Drawing on examples from 12 countries in different parts of the world The Editors have brought together 28 renowned scholars in Europe Australia North America and Asia Pacific countries to contribute to this book The first six chapters address key themes and provide the framework for the 12 country reports which follow With the aim of increasing international understanding and teasing out issues of transfer and application across cultural and linguistic boundaries we have chosen national reports which cover a range of countries representing a diversity of culture and contextual backgrounds We believe these chapters and the book as a whole can provide important theoretical policy and practical implications that will inform the debate about the future of education and of schooling While each of these country narratives underscore the importance of context at the same time there are insights and values held in common Master Plan of Operations and Programme Plans of Operation, 1996-2000 Ghana, 1995 COVID-19, Tourist Destinations and Prospects for Recovery Kaitano Dube, Ishmael Mensah, Lazarus Chapungu, 2023-03-16 Despite the fact that the African tourism industry is prone to disturbances such as diseases extreme weather events civil unrest wars and other shocks nothing could have prepared this destination for the devastating effect of the COVID 19 pandemic In the absence of government or international agency budget support the pandemic challenged the African tourism market to its core The focus of this book is to assess the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on the African tourism destination market as well as its prospects for recovery A chapter written by the editorial team introduces the book Following the introduction the book offers chapters evaluating the pandemic s impact on African tourism Chapters in the second part of the book discuss tourism recovery and how some destinations have survived the pandemic The book concludes with a chapter providing policy recommendations and practical implementation advice The book is part of a 3 volume series

Development and Women's Reproductive Health in Ghana, 1920-1982 Holly Ashford,2022-12-09 This book investigates the history of women s reproductive health in Ghana arguing that between the 1920s and 1980s it was largely driven by discourses of development and population control rather than a concern for women s health or rights Between the 1920s and 1980s the choices that Ghanaian women made regarding their reproductive health were defined by development policy and practice Spanning the colonial and immediate postcolonial periods this book demonstrates that whilst the substance of development discourse shifted over time principles of development continued to be used to impact and legitimise reproductive health policy and practices well after independence The book explores Ghana s pluralist health system the introduction of maternal and child welfare the dominance of the Red Cross in Ghana s maternal and child health landscape nationalist pronatalism and global population activism In order to understand how global iterations of development and health policy impacted ordinary lives in Ghana the author uses evidence from multiple levels including private papers national archives and records of international and transnational organisations Providing balanced archival perspectives the book includes extensive oral history interviews carried out with both rural Ghanaian women and traditional birth attendants as well as with midwives doctors and family planning fieldworkers This book will have an important impact on a number of historical fields including Ghanaian history global health history global histories of population and family planning and histories of development It will be of interest to researchers and students in the history of public health development Africa Ghana and gender
