Pray Like Jesus Don Underwood, 2017-01-12 The Lord's Prayer is the most famous prayer in the world and is remarkably simple and brief In only 70 words Jesus covers the breadth of the Christian message and experience Most Christians already know it by heart and can easily recite it In fact that might be part of the problem it is so well known and easily recited that most of us never even think about the words as we rattle them off silently or in a corporate worship setting In Pray Like Jesus pastor and author Don Underwood reexamines the content of the Lord's Prayer and discovers within it insightful spiritual guidance for developing a rich devotional life At the end of each chapter he suggests ideas for making the prayer a part of daily spiritual disciplines

Endorsements Don Underwood combines pastoral experience with biblical and theological insight to help us rediscover the Lord's Prayer and allow it to become a living reality in our lives James A Harnish author of A Disciple's Path A Disciple's Heart and Living with the Mind of Christ Don points out that the disciples asked Jesus to teach them to pray not after hearing the Master give a powerful sermon but after watching him pray They saw what prayer did for him and they wanted it too James W Moore author of Yes Lord I Have Sinned but I Have Several Excellent Excuses Crisis Music John Caps, 2021-10-27 Story like chapters profile six twentieth century reactive composers not the most famous pillars of the period but lesser known perhaps more approachable characters whose stories span that 1900-2000 period from decadent fin de siècle Vienna Alban Berg Alexander Zemlinsky to war torn Paris Olivier Messiaen Arthur Honegger to the Cold War tensions of East vs West T ru Takemitsu and late century Communism Arvo P rt Their stories were all very different crises and they produced very different kinds of music each very telling of their composers life and times Crisis Music presents each brief biography almost like a detective story looking for motives then spotlights one particular piece of music from each composer that emerged directly out of hard times maybe a political crisis at the time of composition Hitler marching into Paris or later Communist crack downs or some personal angst such as illness or scandal and how that music contains and expresses crisis In short the subject for discussion is how context influences content Such troubled and especially vivid composition crisis music can often be most compelling and meaningful for its composer and for its time Indeed their music also seems to have a special resonance to share with our own crisis prone times And meanwhile Western music history played out its own story from late romantic style to Serialism and Minimalism to the anything goes Pluralism we hear today Crisis Music sparks the discussion about how history biography and music intersect At the behest of music teachers at secondary and tertiary levels Crisis Music contains substantive Discussion Questions geared for classroom use
