Hansen on his Man in Motion tour as well as looking into Terry Fox's eyes on his Marathon of Hope. In keeping with his character as an avid sports and history enthusiast Brent takes us back through many pertinent historical events that shaped his life and society as a whole. Two years after his accident Brent was back at the track this time to announce races rather than participate in them. Shortly after that he launched the Canadian Moto Show a live online talk radio show as well as a magazine with his good friend Kevin Lefebvre. Throughout the process of giving back to the motocross community while also reinventing himself he maintained a position as a senior writer at Motocross Performance Magazine. In 2016 he was nominated for a Coast Mental Health Courage to Come Back award. He continues to reshape his life within the sport he loves refusing to let any of the formidable obstacles he has faced slow him down. This book is Brent's firsthand account of his journey written in all five senses with the hope that his story will motivate and inspire others to see that any seemingly insurmountable obstacles can be overcome.
