resonating with both the heart and the mind Whether you are a poetry enthusiast or a newcomer to Chesterton s work this collection promises to entertain and inspire offering a taste of the timeless spirit of English storytelling Wine, Water and Song Gilbert Keith Chesterton, 1917 Wine, Water and Song G. K. Chesterton, Aeterna Press, 2011-04 St George he was for England And before he killed the dragon He drank a pint of English ale Out of an English flagon For though he fast right readily In hair shirt or in mail It isn t safe to give him cakes Unless you give him ale St George he was for England And right gallantly set free The lady left for dragon s meat And tied up to a tree But since he stood for England And knew what England means Unless you give him bacon You mustn t give him beans St George he is for England And shall wear the shield he wore When we go out in armour With the battle cross before But though he is jolly company And very pleased to dine It isn t safe to give him nuts Unless you give him wine Aeterna Press Wine, Water and Song Gilbert Keith Chesterton, 1915

K. Chesterton, 2011-12-11 This wonderful collection of poems is crowded with vitality and exuberance They are full of Bacchanalian revelry with a touch of the typical Chesterton irony and vigour The Christological Metaphors of Wine, Water, and Bread in the Gospel of John in Relation to Their Sapiential Background Michał Filip

Powęska,2024-12-09 When focusing on the sapiential traits in text of the Fourth Gospel it should be noted that in its images of wine water and bread connected by the common theme of eating and drinking one can see Jesus the Giver who like the Old Testament personified wisdom bestows his gifts on man Although single references to the Old Testament sapiential texts have been suggested for the Johannine images of wine water bread light and the vine no detailed study of these images as well as their juxtapositions even in the aspect of eating and drinking has been published so far The selected topic seems to be important for showing a comprehensive approach to the Johannine banquet motif in its sapiential aspect broken down into particular Johannine images which are the events related to wine water and bread It is ultimately significant to present Jesus full identity through these three metaphors referring to the personified and preexisting wisdom as described in the Old Testament sapiential literature
