

A man with grey hair and glasses, wearing a blue button-down shirt, is looking at a woman with long, wavy brown hair. She is wearing a white crop top and a colorful patterned skirt, and is smiling back at him. They are in a close embrace. The background is a soft, out-of-focus indoor setting with warm lighting.

McClurg & Co,1903 Journal of the United States Artillery ,1944 Love Stories Paul Manning,2015-05-15 In the remote highlands of the country of Georgia a small group of mountaineers called the Khevsurs used to express sexuality and romance in ways that appear to be highly paradoxical On the one hand their practices were romantic but could never lead to marriage On the other hand they were sexual but didn't correspond to what North Americans or most Georgians would have called sex These practices were well documented by early ethnographers before they disappeared completely by the midtwentieth century and have become a Georgian obsession In this fascinating book Manning recreates the story of how these private secretive practices became a matter of national interest concern and fantasy Looking at personal expressions of love and the circulation of these narratives at the broader public level of the modern nation Love Stories offers an ethnography of language and desire that doubles as an introduction to key linguistic genres and to the interplay of language and culture

Transmedia Crime Stories Lieve Gies, Maria Bortoluzzi, 2016-12-04 This collection focuses on media representations of Amanda Knox and Raffaele Sollecito defendants in the Meredith Kercher murder case Adopting a multidisciplinary approach encompassing criminology socio legal analysis critical discourse studies cultural studies and celebrity studies the book analyses how this case was narrated in the media and why Knox emerged as the main protagonist The case was one of the first transmedia crime stories shaped and influenced by its circulation between a variety of media platforms The chapters show how the new media landscape impacts on the way in which different stakeholders from suspects and victims families to journalists and the general public are engaging with criminal justice While traditional news media played a significant role in the construction of innocence and guilt social media offered users a worldwide forum to talk back in a way that both amplified and challenged the dominant media narrative biased in favour of a presumption of guilt This book begins with a new and original foreword written by Yvonne Jewkes University of Brighton UK
