The Big Four Agatha Christie, 2023-01-01 T20:23:36Z The American Soap King has offered Hercule Poirot a ridiculous amount of money to investigate some dodgy business in South America But right before he s due to leave London Poirot discovers that a man has broken into his apartment The addled stranger covered in dust and mud can do little more than repeat Poirot s address and draw the number 4 over and over Could the Big Four a shadowy and seemingly all powerful organization be behind these and other strange events To stay ahead of supercriminals Poirot needs the loyalty of his friend Captain Hastings almost as much as he needs his little grey cells Soon they are rushing to country houses a mysterious laboratory the site of a deadly chess game and a mountaintop hideaway in the Alps The year before this book was published personal turmoil made it impossible for Agatha Christie to write but her publisher was anxious for another novel to follow the highly successful Murder of Roger Ackroyd Her brother in law helped her turn a twelve part serial she had written several years before into The Big Four and it s this origin as separate stories that helps explain its occasional choppyness As much a thriller as a mystery novel the novel has never been considered her finest work by either readers or Christie herself but it remains a fascinating example of Poirot and Hastings at their most spy like and adventurous This book is part of the Standard Ebooks project which produces free public domain ebooks
