The bruised reed and smoking flax, 1630 Richard SIBBES,1818      The Bruised Reed Richard Sibbes,1658      The Bruised Reed and Smoking Flax Richard Sibbes,2011-02-01 Sibbes never wastes the student s time He scatters pearls and diamonds with both hands C H Spurgeon Richard Sibbes was known in London in the early 17th century as the Heavenly Doctor Sibbes The Bruised Reed and Smoking Flax is a masterful exposition of Matthew 12 20 In this the author explains what the reed refers to then he explains what is to be a bruised reed Publisher s Note This book was produced by a team of hard working volunteers in an effort to keep books of antiquity alive and well among our modern day readers We are grateful for the hard work and effort that went into the reproduction of these classics We make a concerted effort to achieve a high quality product while at the same time offering these precious books at lower prices to reach the widest readership possible Our prayer is that you will find them honoring to the name of Christ and share these rich Christians books with others

The Bruised Reed (Illustrated) Richard Sibbes,2019-06-13 God knows we have nothing of ourselves therefore in the covenant of grace he requires no more than he gives but gives what he requires and accepts what he gives Richard Sibbes The Bruised Reed A Puritan Classic Includes Paintings of Christ Our Savior and Images of Richard Sibbes      The Bruised Reed Richard Sibbes,2015-04-15 The Bruised Reed is the masterful exposition of Matthew 12 20 by the famous theologian Richard Sibbes known in his time as the Heavenly Doctor Sibbes and of whom the renowned C H Spurgeon wrote He scatters pearls and diamonds with both hands It was Sibbes desire to expound upon the grace of God in the work of redemption and though he was eminently qualified to produce a text of a dogmatic nature expounding upon the cross of Christ he chose rather to create a work of application respecting sanctification and assurance and to do so with a tender pastoral tone In doing this Sibbes explains what the reed refers to and what it means to be a bruised reed He unpacks the metaphor of bruising to describe the process in which God humbles sinners by giving them a view of sin as he sees it God often must wound before he can heal and yet the goal of his bruising is always to lead us to a deeper love for Christ Few literary works persist past the decade in which they were written and even fewer persist past their century however The Bruised Reed lives on The fact that readers today are still cut to the heart by the profound truths of which Sibbes writes even in a time in which our society is barreling beyond postmodernism is a testament to the quality of its author and of the timelessness of the material What a support to our faith is this that God the Father the party offended by our sins is so well pleased with the work of redemption And what a comfort is this that seeing God s love rests on Christ as well pleased in him we may gather that he is as well pleased with us if we be in Christ from The Bruised Reed Speaking of this classic exposition Richard Baxter wrote It opened more the love of God to me and gave me a livelier apprehension of the mystery of redemption and how much I was beholden to Jesus Christ      The Bruised Reed and Smoking Flax Richard Sibbes,2024-06-01 Bruising is needed so that reeds may know they are reeds not oaks Reeds need to be bruised because of the pride in our nature the removal of which lets us live by mercy and faith It is a difficult thing to bring a dull heart to cry for mercy Our hearts like malefactors until they are beaten from all sides never naturally cry for mercy from the Judge But this bruising makes us set a high price upon Christ It makes us more thankful and more fruitful in our lives Whatever claim sin has on a man bruising or breaking is the end of it This spark of hope being opposed by doubts and fears arising from the corruption of sin makes him as smoking flax Thus both these together a bruised reed and smoking flax make up the state of a poor distressed man Our Savior terms such a one as poor in spirit Christ will not break the bruised reed or quench the smoking flax Though physicians put their patients through much pain they will not destroy their patients bodies but will do their best to heal them Surgeons will cut but not dismember A mother will not cast away a sick or disobedient child Shall we think there is more mercy in ourselves than in God who plants the affection of mercy in us To further declare Christ s mercy to all bruised reeds consider the comforting relationship He has taken upon Himself of husband shepherd and brother which He will discharge to the utmost It cannot but cheer the heart of the church to consider despite all the infirmities and miseries she is subject to that she has a Bridegroom with a kind disposition He knows how to give the honor of kindness to the weaker vessel and will be so far from rejecting her because she is weak that He will pity her all the more He is kind at all times and will speak to her heart especially when in the wilderness
