places It was this inaccessibility which led to the preparation of the present volume which developed out of the considerable research activity into textile markets by the editors first at the University of Bradford and more recently at the Cranfield School of Management to which their research work was transferred in 1972 This book will be of interest to students of business economics marketing and fashion Medieval Costume and How to Recreate It Dorothy Hartley, Francis Michael Kelly, 2003-12-02 This unique reference classifies the clothes and accessories of the 12th through the 15th centuries along social lines Garments of every type from the wardrobes of peasants and nobility appear in over 200 period illustrations and patterns Helpful advice covers choosing fabrics placement of seams draping and folding garments more 203 black and white illustrations The American Outlook ... ,1921 Theatre Magazine ,1918 Theatre Magazine W. Meakin, 2017-07-05 Lady Anne Bacon Drury 1572-1624 was the granddaughter and niece of two of England's Lord Keepers of the Great Seal Sir Nicholas Bacon and Sir Francis Bacon Lady Anne was also the friend and patroness of John Donne and Joseph Hall however she deserves to be remembered in her own right Within her massive country house Lady Anne created a tiny painted room that she seems to have used as a kind of three dimensional book The walls consisted of panels of pictures and mottoes grouped under Latin sentences These panels can still be viewed in a Suffolk museum Christchurch Mansion in Ipswich Some panels point to classical and Biblical sources and to popular emblem books The sources of other panels are more recondite while still others are original compositions by Lady Anne The panels exhibit a contemptus mundi theme and reflect a struggle with ambition pride and even despair Some panels also appear to register carefully veiled but pointed critiques of political and religious events and figures Lady Anne's painted closet or architext is thus relevant to a wide range of early modern scholarship in various disciplines but is as yet largely unappreciated For the first time in four hundred years this book fully describes the closet and places it in its personal social intellectual and aesthetic contexts It argues for the painted closet's importance for understanding early modern conceptualizations of private and public spaces and for illuminating fundamental early modern habits of seeing and reading especially combinations of text and image Finally this book explores the closet as an example of the ingenious ways in which female subjectivity found ways to express itself even within the constraints of early modern patriarchal society in England Quarterly Bulletin of the Providence Public Library Providence Public
