New Wine, Old Wineskins? Bryan Cones, 2025-06-01 Contributions to to this volume continue this year's reflections on the sixtieth anniversary of Sacrosanctum concilium A recent trip home to Tennessee in the US highlighted for me the unusual moment we are occupy When I grew up there in the 1970s and 1980s many newly constructed churches reflected the signs of those times contemporary architecture fan shaped seating and a commitment to liturgy that reflected the culture we inhabited for better and for worse I have always been a fan of a good guitar folk Mass though not of homemade felt banners Among those newish churches was Sacred Heart Cathedral in Knoxville Tennessee where I was baptised in 1973 It was admittedly not the finest example of mid century attempts at churches adorned by an unfortunate twenty foot tall painting by a parishioner of Jesus on the back wall descending as if from the clouds But in many respects it reflected the community that built it a small suburban Roman Catholic minority deep in the US Bible Belt Fast forward to this third decade of the twenty first century and an entirely different church sits on the same site Rather than echoing the tentative footsteps of 1960s US Catholic modern architecture it suggests instead the massive footprint of a Neoclassical European cathedral Coming in at a cool US $8 million to construct it dominates its neighborhood dwarfing the Catholic school on campus and nearly consuming its predecessor now the parish hall it was probably meant to be in the first place The parish administrator noted that its grandeur has become the site of weekly destination weddings Have a look shcathedral.org It fairly screams Roman Catholic in a place where Southern Baptist and other forms of Protestant evangelicalism remain the majority Christian expression It does not however even whisper East Tennessee whether in the famous marble and granite the state is known for or in reflections of our beloved Smoky Mountains Nor is there reference to the Cherokee First Nation whose members still live in those mountains or space for the settler arts of Appalachia whether music or textiles The church is an import through and through meant to signal a uniquely Catholic way of being one quite different from the world around it The Weaver Penelope Phillips, 2022-09-29 The threads of our existence are unique patterns we weave as a legacy on our journeys through life It's our story In The Weaver author Penelope Phillips tells the story of her journey from the perspective of the experiences God provided for her a weaving of his creativity Her experiences speak to women who have chosen or feel called to the career of homemaking and being a wife and a mother It's a lifestyle that can be filled with adventure if one appreciates and accepts the challenges offered Phillips communicates that God has an amazing plan for those who want to know him and take the challenge to be an influence in this world From a Christian wife's view The Weaver shares the spiritual keys to unlocking the challenges the fulfillment the contentment and the joys of this life of adventure An Appointment with God One Ordinary Man's Journey to Faith Through Prayer Jack B. Strandburg, 2002-12-02 I found a closer relationship with God to give me great peace and someone to turn to whenever I need help in my life Whether I am sad anxious lost afraid or depressed I have found God to be at my side when I need Him I wasn't always that close or dependent on God and the journey to arrive to where I am today was a hard and long one filled with highs and lows My account is a document of that journey The One I Love Richard Bradbury, 2020-05-14 John's writings are both ethereal and practical On the one hand he deals with some of the most profound truths of the Christian gospel and then brings us up short with his black and white statements concerning who is in and who is out The dialogues between Jesus and the Pharisees in this gospel sound very harsh to a Western ear there are no punches pulled But these are surrounded by miracles and healings and the profound I Am statements that fall from the pages and cause us to watch and listen in awe and wonder We see the same contrast of profundity and practicality in John's letters as he speaks of Jesus in hushed tones and then condemns those who reject Jesus as antichrist John makes the purpose of his gospel clear John 20:31 He does it in such a way that tells and paints an unmistakable portrait of Jesus that people come to know who He is and put their faith in Him In his letters John aims to deal with error concerning the person of Jesus and to ensure the church remains on track At the centre of all John's writings is a simple message to the Church love one another Everybody Hurts - A Foray into the Minor Prophets Richard Bradbury, 2017-11-23 Many see the Minor Prophets as dusty old men who are irrelevant to the 21st Century world However on further reading we encounter real people who were brave enough to challenge the attitudes and behaviours of their generation Speaking prophetically they called their nation back to God even when it cost them personally which it usually did They suffered harassment rejection and sometimes death but proclaimed their message faithfully That is why I have called this book everybody hurts their message was painful to deliver and painful to receive As you read this book you will find out a little more about these men and the context in which they were bringing their message This includes a synopsis of the political and social situation of the times as well as a view of the history that formed the backdrop to their words The message they were given to bring into those situations is summarised and then mapped to our own context The reader will be left in no doubt that the words of these men are as relevant today as when they were first given This book contains a prophetic message that speaks right into our own generation which we would do well to heed Richard Bradbury is based in Beverley East Yorkshire and leads Beverley Community Church He also represents the Groundlevel network of churches in Churches Together in England Married with four children his primary gifting is as a teacher to the Body of Christ Book reviews online PublishedBestsellers website
