The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1893 Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record ,1898 Catalogue Maggs Bros,1895 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1893 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1893 The Popularization of Malthus in Early Nineteenth-Century England James P. Huzel,2017-05-15 The political economist Thomas Robert Malthus 1766 1834 has gained increasing and deserved scholarly attention in recent years As well as the republication of his works and letters a rich body of scholarship has been produced that enlightens our understanding of his thoughts and arguments Yet little has been written on the ways in which his message was translated to and interpreted by a popular audience Malthus first rose to prominence in 1798 with the publication of his Essay on the Principle of Population in which he blamed rising levels of poverty on the inability of Britain's economy to support its growing population His remedy to limit the number of children born to poor families outraged many social reformers most notably William Cobbett but found a ready audience in other quarters Harriet Martineau among others being a famous Malthusian advocate In this new study of Malthus and the impact of his writings James Huzel shows how by being both popularized and demonized he framed the terms of reference for debate on the problems of pauperism and became the beacon against which all proposals seeking to remedy the problem of poverty had to be measured It is argued that the New Poor Law of 1834 was deeply influenced by Malthusian ideals replacing the traditional sources of outdoor relief with the humiliation of the workhouse Dealing with issues of social economic and intellectual history this work offers a fresh and insightful investigation into one of the most influential though misunderstood thinkers of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries and concludes that Malthus was perhaps even more important than Adam Smith and David Ricardo in fostering the rise of a market economy It is essential reading for all those who wish to reach a fuller understanding of how the tremendous social and economic upheavals of the Industrial Revolution shaped the development of modern Britain

British Satire, 1785-1840, Volume 1 John Strachan,Steven E Jones,2020-04-01 This set offers a representative collection of the verse satire of the Romantic period published between the mid 1780s and the mid 1830s As well as two single author volumes from William Gifford and Thomas Moore there is also a wealth of rare unedited material British Museum British Museum (London),1883 Bulletin of the New York Public Library New York Public Library,1914 Includes its Report 1896 19 Bizarre ,1852 Catalogue of Books, Pamphlets, Tracts, Etc., Chiefly Political and Controversial ,1900 The Athenaeum ,1890 The Bookseller ,1875 Remaking Romanticism Casie LeGette,2017-01-20 This book shows that the publishers and editors of the radical press deployed Romantic era texts for their own political ends and for their largely working class readership long after those works original publication It examines how the literature of the British Romantic period was excerpted and reprinted in radical political papers in Britain in the nineteenth century The agents of this story were bound by neither the chronological march of literary history nor by the original form of the literary texts they reprinted Godwin s Caleb Williams and poems by Wordsworth Southey Coleridge and Shelley appear throughout this book as they appeared in the nineteenth century in bits and pieces Radical publishers and editors carefully and purposefully excerpted the works of their recent past excavating useful political claims from the midst of less amenable texts and remaking texts and authors alike in the process The Literary World ,1852 Waggeries and Vagaries William Evans Burton,1848 The Poets and Poetry of America Rufus Wilmot Griswold,1855

Historical and Secret Memoirs of the Empress Josephine Marie-Anne Adélaide Le Normand,1852 Wild Jack; Or, The Stolen Child: and Other Stories Caroline Lee Hentz,1853 The Genius, and Character of Burns John Wilson,1854
