The Broadview Anthology Of Expository Prose Second Edition:

The Broadview Anthology of Expository Prose: Second Edition Tammy Roberts, Mical Moser, Don LePan, Julia Gaunce, Laura Buzzard, 2011-05-25 A substantial selection of classic essays allows readers to trace the history of the essay from Swift to Woolf and Orwell and beyond A selection of the finest of contemporary essays from Witold Rybcynski to David Sedaris and Elizabeth Kolbert provides a broad sample of the genre in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries The academic essays begin with classic selections from such writers as Darwin and Charles Lyell but the emphasis is on recent decades Emphasized as well are academic papers or essays that have been especially influential or controversial from Luis and Walter Alvarez's suggestion that an asteroid caused the extinction of the dinosaurs to Judith Rich Harris's argument that the influence of peers may be at least as influential in the formation of personality as that of parents Works of different lengths levels of difficulty and subject matter are all represented as are narrative descriptive and persuasive essays Also included in the text is a range of questions and suggestions for discussion The text selections are numbered by paragraph for ready reference Added to the second edition are new selections by Malcolm Gladwell Doris Lessing Eric Schlosser Binyavanga Wainaina and over twenty others This new edition also provides pairings of informal and academic articles that address the same topic allowing readers to consider contrasting approaches

The Broadview Anthology of Expository Prose - Third Edition Laura Buzzard, Don LePan, Nora Ruddock, Alexandria Stuart, 2016-08-29 The third edition of this anthology has been substantially revised and updated for a contemporary American audience a selection of classic essays from earlier eras has been retained but the emphasis is very much on twenty first century expository writing Works of different lengths and levels of difficulty are represented as are narrative descriptive and persuasive essays and new to this edition lyric essays For the new edition there are also considerably more short pieces than ever before a number of op ed pieces are included as are pieces from blogs and from online news sources The representation of academic writing from several disciplines has been increased and in some cases the anthology also includes news reports presenting the results of academic research to a general audience Also new to this edition are essays from a wide range of the most celebrated essayists of the modern era from James Baldwin Susan Sontag Joan Didion and Annie Dillard to Eula Biss and Ta Nehisi Coates The anthology remains broad in its thematic coverage but certain themes receive special emphasis notably issues of race class and culture in twenty first century America For the new edition the headnotes have been expanded providing students with more information as to the context in which each piece was written Questions and suggestions for discussion have been moved online to the instructor website

The Broadview Anthology of Expository Prose - Third Canadian Edition Laura Buzzard, Don LePan, Nora Ruddock, Alexandria Stuart, 2017-08-08 The third Canadian edition of this anthology has been substantially revised and updated for a contemporary audience a selection of classic essays from earlier eras has been retained but the emphasis is very much on twenty first century expository writing There is also a focus on issues of great importance in twenty first century Canada such as climate change the Truth and Reconciliation Commission the Jian Ghomeshi trial Facebook police discrimination trans rights and postsecondary education in the humanities Works of different lengths and levels of difficulty are represented as are narrative descriptive and persuasive essays and new to this edition lyric essays For the new edition there are also considerably more short pieces than ever before a number of op ed pieces are included as are pieces from blogs and from online news sources The representation of academic writing from several disciplines has been increased and in some cases the anthology also includes news reports presenting the results of academic research to a general audience Also new to this edition are essays from a wide range of the most celebrated prose writers of the modern era from Susan Sontag Eula Biss and Michel Foucault to Anne Carson and Ta Nehisi Coates The anthology also offers increased diversity of representation including for example a larger proportion of First Nations writers and women writers than previous Canadian editions Unobtrusive explanatory notes appear at the bottom of the page and each selection is preceded by a headnote that provides students with information regarding the context in which the piece was written Each reading is also followed by questions for discussion A unique feature is the inclusion of a set of additional notes on the anthology's companion website notes designed to be of particular help to EAL students and or students who have little familiarity with Canadian culture The anthology is accompanied by two companion websites The student website features additional readings and interactive writing exercises as well as the additional notes The instructor website provides additional discussion questions and for a number of the anthology selections background information that may be of interest

The Broadview Anthology of British Literature: Concise Volume A - Second Edition Joseph Black, Leonard Conolly, Kate Flint, Isobel Grundy, Don LePan, Roy Liuzza, Jerome J. McGann, Anne Lake Prescott, Barry V. Qualls, Claire Waters, 2011-09-08 In all six of its volumes The Broadview Anthology of British Literature presents British literature in a truly distinctive light Fully grounded in sound literary and historical scholarship the anthology takes a fresh approach to many canonical authors and includes a wide selection of work by lesser known writers The anthology also provides wide ranging coverage of the worldwide connections of British literature and it pays attention throughout to issues of race gender class and sexual orientation It includes comprehensive introductions to each period providing in each case an overview of the historical and cultural as well as the literary background It features accessible and engaging headnotes for all authors extensive explanatory annotations and an unparalleled number of illustrations and contextual materials Innovative authoritative and comprehensive The Broadview Anthology of British Literature has established itself as a leader in the field The full anthology comprises six bound volumes together with an extensive website component the latter has been edited annotated and designed according to the same high standards as the bound book component of the anthology and is accessible by using the passcode obtained with the purchase of one or more of the bound volumes The two volume Broadview Anthology of British Literature Concise Edition provides an attractive alternative to the full six volume anthology Though

much more compact the concise edition nevertheless provides instructors with substantial choice offering both a strong selection of canonical authors and a sampling of lesser known works With an unparalleled number of illustrations and contextual materials accessible and engaging introductions and full explanatory annotations the concise edition of this acclaimed Broadview anthology provides focused yet wide ranging coverage for British literature survey courses The second edition of this volume includes Chaucer's To Rosamond an expanded selection from Sidney's Astrophil and Stella and additional material from Elizabeth I The new edition also offers an expanded selection from Paradise Lost as well as Pope's Essay on Criticism and a new Contexts section on transatlantic literary currents

How to Be Good with Words Don LePan, Laura Buzzard, Maureen Okun, 2017-02-28 In recent decades the contested areas of English usage have grown both larger and more numerous English speakers argue about whether we should say man or humanity fisher or fisherman whether we ought to speak of people as being disabled or challenged or differently abled whether it is acceptable to say that s so gay More generally we ask can we use language in ways that avoid giving expression to prejudices embedded within it Can the words we use help us point a way towards a better world Can we ask such questions with appropriate seriousness while remaining open minded and while retaining our sense of humor To all these questions this concise and user friendly guide answers yes while offering clear headed discussions of many of the key issues

Making Sense of Narrative Text Michael Toolan, 2016-06-03 This book takes the following question as its starting point What are some of the crucial things the reader must do in order to make sense of a literary narrative The book is a study of the texture of narrative fiction using stylistics corpus linguistic principles especially Hoey's work on lexical patterning narratological ideas and cognitive stylistic work by Werth Emmott and others Michael Toolan explores the textual grammatical nature of fictional narratives critically re-examining foundational ideas about the role of lexical patterning in narrative texts and also engages the cognitive or psychological processes at play in literary reading The study grows out of the theoretical questions that stylistic analyses of extended fictional texts raise concerning the nature of narrative comprehension and the reader's experience in the course of reading narratives and particularly concerning the role of language in that comprehension and experience The ideas of situation repetition and picturing are all central to the book's argument about how readers process story and Toolan also considers the ethical and emotional involvement of the reader developing hypotheses about the text linguistic characteristics of the most ethically and emotionally involving portions of the stories examined This book makes an important contribution to the study of narrative text and is in dialogue with recent work in corpus stylistics cognitive stylistics and literary text and texture
