By: Lorena Revueltas

The Black Cat is a short story written by the famous Edgar Allan Poe, who is recognized for his attraction for the death, mystery and surrealism. This story narrates a revenge from Pluto the cat to his keeper, who suddenly changed his loving manner thanks to alcoholism.

It was an unacceptable act and the poor cat paid the consequences. The man take one cat's eye off with a knife! He had lost his mind definitively. A few days later, the cat's neck was tied and hung from a wood beam by the insane man. The same night the house got burned. The man thought that it was caused by the cat, it had took revenge.

One night the man was drinking at the tavern, and found a black cat there, he petted it and realized that it had to be his. It didn't have owner so he took it to home. The cat had just one eye like Pluto, a very creepy and surprising fact. The man was followed by the cat everywhere he went. Then, he started to hate it.

One day the man's wife called his husband from the cellar, while he was getting there the cat made him fell down. That made him so much

The Black Cat Edgar Allen Poe,Dave Williams,2018-04-23 After setting up his story from this perspective the man tells the reader about a cat named Pluto he used to have as a pet He describes Pluto as a remarkably large beautiful animal entirely black The narrator s wife jokes that the cat might be a witch in disguise given its unusual intelligence The narrator and Pluto have a close bond He takes care of Pluto and Pluto follows him everywhere around the house It is a very tender relationship Then everything goes wrong The narrator an alcoholic starts getting angry at everyone He mistreats his wife and their other animals but he never hurts Pluto But one night the narrator comes home drunk and thinks Pluto is avoiding him He grabs the cat who bites him In retaliation the narrator cuts out one of the cat s eyes After he sleeps off his drunken state the narrator is horrified about his actions It is not enough to get him to stop drinking though The cat s eye socket heals but Pluto and the narrator no longer have a good relationship Pluto starts to avoid the narrator all the time Instead of feeling remorseful the narrator just feels irritated at the cat s behavior The narrator hangs the cat in cold blood from a tree That night his house burns down The narrator his wife and their servant all escape the fire unharmed but the fire destroys his home and all of his possessions When the narrator returns to the ashes later he sees the figure of a cat on the only surviving wall Months pass The narrator sees a cat remarkably similar to Pluto except that on his chest is a white patch The cat follows him home At first the narrator likes the cat but soon he can t stand the cat at all especially after he notices that one of its eyes is missing The more he hates the cat the more the cat likes him The narrator cannot bring himself to hurt the cat because he is afraid of it The white shape on its chest morphs into a gallows a direct reminder of his crime against Pluto

Eventually the narrator is driven so mad that he tries to kill the cat with an axe His wife intervenes and the narrator ends up killing his wife He decides to conceal the body inside his house behind the wall of the basement The narrator looks for the cat but it is missing For three nights he sleeps undisturbed by the cat Then on the fourth day police come to his house to ask questions about his wife s disappearance During their investigation the narrator raps on the wall he has rebuilt to conceal his wife s corpse The noise of him knocking causes the cat which had accidentally become sealed inside the wall to howl alerting the police to the presence of the narrator s wife
