C. Barfoot, 2001 Although the title of this volume is Aldous Huxley between East and West the order of the articles found within goes from West to East which naturally imitates Huxley s own progress especially since he went to the trouble of stepping out as far West as possible before starting for the East Indeed one could argue that he was already on his way there before he left for California a continuous journey perhaps since from the Californian shores of the Pacific the East is the further West After the Introduction which places Huxley between East and West the book starts with a consideration of Huxley s family connections then goes onto his earliest fictions his interest in science and the issue of modernity and his experiments with drama and their inherent philosophical concerns The poetry with which he began his writing career is then viewed as a link between his earlier Western self and his later Oriental interests suggesting that the latter was always inherent in the former A number of considerations of the Utopian themes in Huxley s middle and later fiction leads the volume to a climax with four articles surveying the foibles and the wisdom of Huxley s encounter with Eastern religious thought and philosophy his misunderstandings as well as ours of what actually he had learned and wished to pass on to the Western world Aldous Huxley, from Poet to Mystic Jerome Meckier, 2011 Aldous Huxley began as a poet He perfected the voice of the modern satirical poet of ideas who used art against itself to produce a parodic poetry of breakdowns collapses stalemates and dead ends best suited to the apparent pointlessness of the post war era His cleverest most irreverent poems are contrapuntal they in effect silence venerable poets and cancel traditional formats Huxley's poetic personas either fail to preserve conventional forms or purposely sabotage them By 1920 Huxley became the parodic equivalent of the formative intelligences i.e. Dante Goethe and Lucretius who once synthesized their respective eras positively In this book author Jerome Meckier explicates most of Huxley's poems including Leda his masterpiece an ironical modern myth Meckier traces Huxley's development in terms of the poets he inserted in five of his eleven novels along with their poems These poets mostly fail as poets their different stances falling apart one after another But Huxley began to detect a spiritual significance underlying the creative urge This allowed him to rehabilitate many of the Romantic and Victorian poets he formerly ridiculed as frauds and liars Eventually he celebrated mystical contemplation as silent poetry positing a utopia in which everyone is a poet to the limits of his or her potentiality Huxley became the perennial philosopher a neo Brahmin the sage like figure he initially personified parodically His paradigmatic career took him from a Pyrrhonic silencing of outmoded poems and poets to the advocacy of a poetry of silence Series Human Potentialities Studien zu Aldous Huxley zeitgenössischer Kultur Studies in Aldous Huxley Contemporary Culture Vol 11 Arrogant Evil God Sheng RenWuMing, 2019-11-17 A good for nothing young master who had received an unintentional awakening from the ancient bloodline fighting against strong enemies controlling divine beasts and stirring up the winds and clouds in the Three Realms If the heavens block me the heavens will pierce through the heavens and if the earth obstructs me the earth will shatter the earth I am the ruler of all gods Bibliographies of the First Editions of Books by Aldous Huxley and by T F Powys, 1927 The Magic of the Summer Solstice Danu Forest, 2015-05-07 In this the first in a series of e books on the solstices and equinoxes within this sacred cycle Danu Forest reveals the secrets of the Summer Solstice when the sun reaches its highest point in the sky and the days are at their longest This is a festival of power a time for appreciating the maturity of nature and our lives a time of confidence illumination and vitality Throughout this book Danu skilfully revives ancient traditions encouraging you to reconnect with nature and yourself with a host of practical rituals Craft floral sun wheels and suncatchers for your home Meditate on the changing heavens with Celtic star lore Make pouches of vervain for self protection or elderflower cordial to attract the blessings of the faeries Revel in the power of the Summer Solstice with a magical guided visualization
