The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re-reading of women's writing that has gone on in the last twenty five years This is an opportunity for stock taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women's writing

The Camomile Lawn Mary Wesley, 2000 Bundeling van twee romans Entranced by Story Hugh Crago, 2014-04-24 We live in a world of stories yet few of us pause to ask what stories actually are why we consume them so avidly and what they do for story makers and their audiences This book focuses on the experiences that good stories generate feelings of purposeful involvement elevation temporary loss of self vicarious emotion and relief of tension The author examines what drives writers to create stories and why readers fall under their spell why some children grow up to be writers and how the capacity for creating and comprehending stories develops from infancy right through into old age Entranced by Story applies recent research on brain function to literary examples ranging from the Iliad and Wuthering Heights to Harold and the Purple Crayon providing a groundbreaking exploration of the biological and neurological basis of the literary experience Blending research theory and biographical anecdote the author shows how it is the unique structure of the human brain with its layering of sophisticated cognitive capacities upon archaic emotion driven functions which best explains the mystery of story The Collected Novels Volume One Mary Wesley,2018-11-27 Three touching contemporary British novels of love loss and humor from the international bestselling virtuoso The Times London Jumping the Queue This masterpiece of wit humor and psychological suspense tells the story of a middle aged widow who has had it with life She puts her papers in order gives away her pet goose packs a picnic lunch and heads to the beach to drown herself only to meet a criminal on the run who has the same idea Together they set out on adventure in this novel about the hidden costs of love and death The Camomile Lawn In this international bestseller several cousins reunite after forty years to lay one of their own to rest Together they recall their last carefree summer and one hot August night in 1939 before the war began They also reflect on the chaos that followed and how it changed their lives forever Harnessing Peacocks Single mother Hebe juggles numerous lovers while working as a manor house chef to pay for her son s schooling When her two worlds collide a secret from the past leads to a final showdown with a man who s in search for his lost love in this captivating and sensual novel The Gardeners' Chronicle ,1891 We Can Take It! Mark Connelly,2014-07-10 We Can Take It shows that the British remember the war in a peculiar way thanks to a mix of particular images and evidence Our memory has been shaped by material which is completely removed from historical reality These images including complete inventions have combined to make a new history The vision is mostly cosy and suits the way in which the Britons conceive of themselves dogged good humoured occasionally bumbling unified and enjoying diversity In fact Britons load their memory towards the early part of the war Dunkirk Blitz Battle of Britain rather than when we were successful in the air or against Italy and Germany with invasions This suits our love of being the underdog fighting against the odds and being in a crisis Conversely the periods of the war during which Britain was in the ascendant are perversely far more hazy in the public memory Gardeners' Chronicle ,1889 Post-War British Women Novelists and the Canon Nick Turner,2010-04-11 A monograph analyzing a number of modern British women writers and the way in which the the canon of post war British writing has been formed Departure Lounge Robert Laurence,2014-02-25 The mid Eighties No cell phones no email no caller ID no GPS It was easier then to pass without notice to be out of touch to get lost The Berlin Wall still stood as did the World Trade Center and Michael Reid embarks on what even he concedes to be a spate of obsessive travel Scandinavia the Persian Gulf South Asia back home to the Ozarks then off again to Greece Eastern Europe and Egypt Along the way he writes letters about what he s seeing and what he s thinking to three friends Anna Browning a mathematician in Tallahassee who thinks of Michael less fondly than he thinks of her Richard Randolph Michael s baseball watching pal who leads a comfortable perhaps too comfortable life as a law professor in Albuquerque and Marie Cochran a middle school social studies teacher in rural New Mexico who is Michael s on again off again lover These three all know Michael but they don t know each other And against the background of Michael s travels and his letters their lives become curiously even mysteriously intertwined changed in ways that Michael himself can t
