Hollywood and the Mob Tim Adler, 2011-11-03 From its earliest days the Mafia has sought to make a fast buck from the American film industry. Stories of intimidation, threats and violence mingle with those of glamour and excess. In this stunning story of infamy and ballsy enterprise Tim Adler tells the secret history of Al Capone, Sam Giancana and John Gotti's attempts to infiltrate the studio lots. However, although they have controlled the moguls and the money the Mob learned how to be cool from classic films like The Godfather and characters like Tony Soprano, leaving them forever intertwined in both fact and fiction. Knowing the Score David Papineau, 2017-05-02 In Knowing the Score philosopher David Papineau uses sports to illuminate some of modern philosophy's most perplexing questions. As Papineau demonstrates the study of sports clarifies challenges and sometimes confuses crucial issues in philosophy. The tactics of road bicycle racing shed new light on questions of altruism while sporting family dynasties reorient the nature v nurture debate. Why do sports competitors choke? Why do fans think God will favor their team over their rivals? How can it be moral to deceive the umpire by framing a pitch? From all of these questions and many more philosophy has a great deal to learn. An entertaining and erudite book that ranges far and wide through the sporting world Knowing the Score is perfect reading for armchair philosophers and Monday morning quarterbacks alike. EU Cartel Enforcement Andreas Scordamaglia-Tousis, 2013-08-01 There has been a long standing debate on the compatibility of EU competition law with fundamental rights protection, particularly as the latter is enshrined in the due process requirements of the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR). This book a signal contribution to that debate assesses two questions of paramount concern: first, whether the current level of fundamental rights protection in cartel enforcement falls within the accepted ECHR standards; and second, how the often conflicting objectives of effectiveness and adequate protection of fundamental rights could optimally be achieved. Following a detailed survey of relevant EU institutional, substantive and procedural law rules, the author offers a set of persuasive normative responses to both questions. Proceeding from an in depth analysis of the pertinent rights and legal nature of competition proceedings under EU and ECHR law, the author goes on to examine such elements of the perceived incompatibility as the following investigatory powers vested in competition authorities the privilege against self incrimination right to privacy fair trial probatory requirements degree of use of presumptions in EU practice Article 6 ECHR guarantees pertaining to the presumption of innocence proving coordination of competitive behaviour proving restriction of competition admissibility of evidence before EU Courts and the Commission assessment of the attribution of liability rules EU fining rules judicial review of cartel decisions by EU Courts and national sanctioning rules The author s extraordinarily thorough presentation is rounded off with a remarkably comprehensive bibliography that lists in addition to books and articles newspaper articles EU regulations and directives soft law guidelines and best practices EU and ECtHR case law EU Advocate General opinions European Commission decisions and European Ombudsman decisions General conclusions stress the necessity of introducing further reforms to enhance the effectiveness and legitimacy of fundamental rights in the context of competition proceedings Few books have taken such a thorough and far reaching approach to the reconciliation of effective public enforcement and fundamental rights or of effective deterrence with the principles of legality non retroactivity presumption of innocence and ne bis in idem In the depth of its appraisal of the entire spectrum of enforcement components from a fundamental rights perspective the book is without peers It will be warmly welcomed by any parties interested in the intersection of competition law and human rights Free Gift Inside!! Stephen Brown,2004-03-05 Free Gift Inside offers an alternative solution to the difficulty of selling to an already sated and sophisticated consumer Based on the article Torment Your Customers They ll Love It which Harvard Business Review chose as one of 2002 s Six Breakthrough Ideas A new concept that turns marketing on its head and offers a more effective answer to customer relationship management and permission marketing From Blood Diamonds to the Kimberley Process Franziska Bieri,2016-04-15 In the late 1990s several non governmental organizations NGOs focused world attention on the issue of conflict diamonds which funded wars massive death and refugee crises across Central and West Africa Several governments NGOs and key industry players engaged in negotiations under the so called Kimberley Process KP A voluntary global agreement came into effect leading to a substantial decline in illicit diamond trade Despite its importance in international affairs the KP remains understudied in academia Franziska Bieri s book provides the first comprehensive account of the KP and is the first to reveal how NGOs have become critical actors in their own right possessing the ability to directly influence policies and to participate in the decision making and the implementation of global agreements In developing this argument Bieri explains why the NGO campaign to raise awareness was successful why a rapid and comprehensive resolution on such a complex global problem was possible how the tripartite negotiations between states NGOs and industry developed during the implementation of the agreement which is an on going process Based on extensive personal interviews with prominent campaigners leading bureaucrats and industry officials hundreds of KP publications official UN documents industry news and NGO reports this timely book allows for a much needed engagement in contemporary debates about the campaign against
