Thomas J. Shelley

The Bank In Greenwich Village:

Haunted Greenwich Village Tom Ogden, 2012-08-21 Tales of ghostly goings on and otherworldly encounters in Greenwich Village Among New York City's many treasures is Greenwich Village a bohemian area filled with creativity and rebellion Haunted Greenwich Village a collection of stories of ghosts mysteries and paranormal happenings in Greenwich Village will leave readers delightfully frightened Meet a colorful cast of spirits and spectres visit haunted hotels and houses and experience the eerie and supernatural Many of the locations are accessible to the public and some are even open for overnight stays for the truly daring including Washington Square This upper class neighborhood is haunted by celebrity apparitions the spirits of those buried there the ghosts of those executed at Hangman's Elm and even a phantom dog Third Street The spirit that haunts a block here sometimes parks his horse and carriage directly in front of NYU's D'Agostino Residence Hall This famous early American politician and his daughter who disappeared at sea have even disrupted a restaurant about four blocks away in the West Village Greenwich Village Anna Alice Chapin, 1920 Greenwich Village Catholics Thomas J. Shelley, 2003 Jay Dolan transformed the writing of American Catholic history a quarter century ago by telling the story from the bottom up instead of from the top down In recent years a number of parish histories have appeared that reflect and expand this new methodology They successfully relate the life of a local faith community to the larger religious and secular world of which it is a part and reciprocally illuminate that bigger world from the perspective of this local community St Joseph's Church in Greenwich Village offers a fruitful opportunity for this kind of history During the life span of this parish the Catholic community in New York City has grown from a mere thirty or forty thousand to over three million in two dioceses St Joseph's Church began as a poor immigrant parish in a hostile Protestant environment developed into a prosperous working class parish as the area became predominantly Catholic survived a series of local economic and social upheavals and remains today a vibrant spiritual center in the midst of an overwhelmingly secular neighborhood Its history provides a fascinating glimpse of the evolution of Catholicism in New York City during the course of the past 175 years The history of this parish is worth telling for its own sake as the collective journey of one faith community from immigrant mission to pillar of society and then to spiritual outpost in the Secular City However it has significance far beyond the boundaries of Greenwich Village because it documents at the most basic and vital level of Catholic communal organization the interaction between change and continuity that has been one of the most prominent features of urban Catholicism in the United States over the past two centuries Greenwich Village and how it Got that Way Terry Miller, 1990 Comprehensive look at Greenwich Village's past and present and how the village became America's bohemia Greenwich Village, 1920-1930 Caroline Farrar Ware, 1994-01-01 Greenwich Village represents American social science during the interwar years at its best It remains the best community study of New York important both for its innovative method and for its substantive findings about intergroup relations in a pluralistic open and urban society during a period of crisis and reform ferment Thomas Bender New York University The Greenwich Village Quill ,1919 Kenneth Burke in Greenwich Village Jack Selzer,1996-12-01 Capturing the lively modernist milieu of Kenneth Burke s early career in Greenwich Village where Burke arrived in 1915 fresh from high school in Pittsburgh this book discovers him as an intellectual apprentice conversing with the moderns Burke found himself in the midst of an avant garde peopled by Malcolm Cowley Marianne Moore Jean Toomer Katherine Anne Porter William Carlos Williams Allen Tate Hart Crane Alfred Stieglitz and a host of other fascinating figures Burke himself who died in 1993 at the age of 96 has been hailed as America s most brilliant and suggestive critic and the most significant theorist of rhetoric since Cicero Many schools of thought have claimed him as their own but Burke has defied classification and indeed has often been considered a solitary eccentric genius immune to intellectual fashions But Burke s formative work of the 1920s when he first defined himself and his work in the context of the modernist conversation has gone relatively unexamined Here we see Burke living and working with the crowd of poets painters and dramatists affiliated with Others magazine Stieglitz s 291 gallery and Eugene O Neill s Provincetown Players the leftists associated with the magazines The Masses and Seven Arts the Dadaists and the modernist writers working on literary journals like The Dial where Burke in his capacity as an associate editor saw T S Eliot s The Wasteland into print for the first time and provided other editorial services for Thomas Mann e e cummings Ezra Pound and many other writers of note Burke also met the iconoclasts of the older generation represented by Theodore Dreiser and H L Mencken the New Humanists and the literary nationalists who founded Contact and The New Republic Jack Selzer shows how Burke s own early poems fiction and essays emerged from and contributed to the modernist conversation in Greenwich Village He draws on a wonderfully rich array of letters between Burke and his modernist friends and on the memoirs of his associates to create a vibrant portrait of the young Burke s transformation from aesthete to social critic Ninety Years of the Greenwich Savings Bank, the Third Trustee Savings Bank, Founded in New York City, July 1st, 1833 James Hiram Collins,1923 Inside Greenwich Village Gerald W. McFarland,2005-01-01 A vibrant portrait of a celebrated urban enclave at the turn of the twentieth century A History of Fifty Feet in New York at Wall & William Streets Bank of America, New York,1926
