The Bastard Of Istanbul:

The Bastard of Istanbul Elif Shafak, 2008-01-29 A vivid and entertaining Chicago Tribune tale about the tangled history of two families from the author of The Island of Missing Trees a Reese's Book Club Pick Zesty imaginative a Turkish version of Amy Tan's The Joy Luck Club USA Today As an Armenian American living in San Francisco Armanoush feels like part of her identity is missing and that she must make a journey back to the past to Turkey in order to start living her life Asya is a nineteen year old woman living in an extended all female household in Istanbul who loves Jonny Cash and the French existentialists The Bastard of Istanbul tells the story of their two families and a secret connection linking them to a violent event in the history of their homeland Filled with humor and understanding this exuberant dramatic novel is about memory and forgetting about the need to examine the past and the desire to erase it and about Turkey itself The Bastard of Istanbul Elif Shafak, 2008 From one of Turkey's most acclaimed and outspoken writers comes a novel about the tangled histories of two families Self-Translation and Power Olga Castro, Sergi Mainer, Svetlana Page, 2017-08-07 This book investigates the political social cultural and economic implications of self translation in multilingual spaces in Europe Engaging with the power turn in translation studies contexts it offers innovative perspectives on the role of self translators as cultural and ideological mediators The authors explore the unequal power relations and centre periphery dichotomies of Europe's minorised languages literatures and cultures They recognise that the self translator's double affiliation as author and translator places them in a privileged position to challenge power to negotiate the experiences of the subaltern and colonised and to scrutinise conflicting minorised vs hegemonic cultural identities Three main themes are explored in relation to self translation hegemony and resistance self minorisation and self censorship and collaboration hybridisation and invisibility This edited collection will appeal to scholars and students working on translation transnational and postcolonial studies and multilingual and multicultural identities Turkish Ecocriticism Sinan Akilli, Serpil Oppermann, 2020-12-10 Turkish Ecocriticism From Neolithic to Contemporary Timescapes explores the values perceptions and transformations of the environment ecology and nature in Turkish culture literature and the arts Through these themes it examines historical and contemporary environmentally engaged literary and cultural traditions in Turkey The volume reimagines Turkey in its geo social and ecocultural narratives of multiple connections and complexities in its multifaceted webs of histories and in its rich multispecies stories Pamuk's Istanbul Pallavi Narayan, 2022-04-28 This book reconstructs Istanbul through the prism of Orhan Pamuk's fiction It navigates the multiple selves and layers of Istanbul to present how the city has shaped the writings of Pamuk and has in turn been shaped by it Through everyday objects and architecture it shows how Pamuk transforms the city into a living museum where different objects converse along with characters to present a rich tapestry across space and time Further the monograph explores the formation of communal and literary identity within and around nation building narratives informed by capitalism and modernization The book also examines how Pamuk uses the postmodern city to move beyond its postmodern confines and utilizes the theories and universes of Bakhtin Benjamin and Foucault to open up his fiction and radically challenge the idea of the novel The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature literary theory museum studies architecture and cultural studies and especially appeal to readers of Orhan Pamuk

The Converso's Return Dalia Kandiyoti, 2020-08-04 Five centuries after the forced conversion of Spanish and Portuguese Jews to Catholicism stories of these conversos descendants uncovering long hidden Jewish roots have come to light and taken hold of the literary and popular imagination This seemingly remote history has inspired a wave of contemporary writing involving hidden artifacts familial whispers and secrets and clandestine Jewish ritual practices pointing to a past that had been presumed dead and buried The Converso's Return explores the cultural politics and literary impact of this reawakened interest in converso and crypto Jewish history ancestry and identity and asks what this fascination with lost and found heritage can tell us about how we relate to and make use of the past Dalia Kandiyoti offers nuanced interpretations of contemporary fictional and autobiographical texts about crypto Jews in Cuba Mexico New Mexico Spain France the Ottoman Empire and Turkey These works not only imagine what might be missing from the historical archive but also suggest an alternative historical consciousness that underscores uncommon convergences of and solidarities within Sephardi Christian Muslim converso and Sabbatean histories Steeped in diaspora Sephardi transamerican Iberian and world literature studies The Converso's Return illuminates how the converso narrative can enrich our understanding of history genealogy and collective memory

Border Politics in Novels by European Women in Translation Pam Morris, 2024-09-19 Is conflict inherent to the politics of borders Recent global events erupting from national religious class racial and gender boundaries would suggest it is From the inhumanity of post Brexit British immigration policy to the violent suppression of women's freedom in Iran to Russia's territorial invasion of Ukraine and most immediately to the violent conflagration engulfing Palestine border hostilities seem everywhere characterised by fearful and toxic intolerance of what is deemed other This book examines the writing of award winning European novelists to suggest an alternative perspective one that redresses time sanctioned hierarchies of mind over body of ideals over physical reality It explores novelistic representations of power war sacrifice heroism national history and identity all issues more conventionally viewed within a male consensus The fiction offers a cultural and imaginative response to border conflicts of all kinds ethical bodily religious and geographical often drawing upon the writers own personal experience of threatening divisions Examining works by Virginia Woolf Jenny Erpenbeck Olga Tokarczuk Herta and Paulina Aikin Anna Burns Chika Unigwe Maylis de Lencquesaing Magda Szabó Elena Ferranti Alki Zei Elif Shafak and Oksana Zabuzhko it uses an integrated interdisciplinary approach to combine literary readings with detailed historical and political understanding of cultural context Coming from many different cultures and histories these writers speak a common condemnation of all hierarchies of worth and of exceptionalist identities whether sanctified by religion nature or tradition Morris shows how their stories read here in translation also articulate a strikingly unified vision of a radical ecological understanding of human relations based on physical continuity and co existence rather than borders dividing an idealised us from a denigrated them Female Representations in Elif Shafak's The Bastard of Istanbul Melike Sayoğlu,2012 Exploring Turkish Cultures Dr Laurence Raw,2011-01-18 This groundbreaking series of essays offers new insights into Turkish cultures both past and present Moving beyond the traditional binaries of east west Islam secularism and Europe Asia the book contains a variety of perspectives on contemporary Turkey from actors directors critics and other major cultural figures The book tries to situate these opinions in context by looking at how such perspectives are employed in different cultural spheres education theatre politics and the like Exploring Turkish Cultures contains the first major interviews published in English with prominent public figures including actors T rk n oray Genco Erkal and Nesrin Kazankaya Other figures interviewed include film directors Dervi Zaim and documentary filmmakers Ben Hopkins Pelin Esmer and zg r Do an An extended interview with the author translator and academic Tal t Halman rounds off the interview section Complementing these interviews are a series of essays on major Turkish films and theatrical productions both past and present Combining historical analysis comment and evaluation from an author who has spent two decades living in Turkey Exploring Turkish Cultures represents a major contribution to contemporary Turkish studies The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Censorship Denise Merkle,Brian James Baer,2024-12-18 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Censorship is the first handbook to provide a comprehensive overview of the topic offering broad geographic and historical coverage and extending the political contexts to incorporate colonial and postcolonial viewpoints as well as pluralistic societies It examines key cultural texts of all kinds as well as audio visual translation comics drama and videogames With over 30 chapters the Handbook highlights commonalities and differences across the various contexts encouraging comparative approaches to the topic of translation and censorship Edited and authored by leading figures in the field of Translation Studies the chapters provide a critical mapping of the current research and suggest future directions With an introductory chapter by the editors on theorizing censorship the Handbook is an essential reference and resource for advanced students scholars and researchers in translation studies comparative literature and related fields Sacrificial Limbs Salih Can Aciksoz,2019-11-26 Sacrificial Limbs chronicles the everyday lives and political activism of disabled veterans of Turkey s Kurdish war one of the most volatile conflicts in the Middle East Through nuanced ethnographic portraits A iks z examines how veterans experiences of war and disability are closely linked to class gender and ultimately the embrace of ultranationalist right wing politics Bringing the reader into military hospitals commemorations political demonstrations and veterans everyday spaces of care intimacy and activism Sacrificial Limbs provides a vivid analysis of the multiple and sometimes contradictory forces that fashion veterans bodies political subjectivities and communities It is essential reading for students and scholars interested in anthropology masculinity and disability Untold Histories of the Middle East Amy Singer,Christoph Neumann,Selcuk Aksin Somel,2010-07-28 Much traditional historiography consciously and unconsciously glosses over certain discourses narratives and practices This book examines silences or omissions in Middle Eastern history at the turn of the twenty first century to give a fuller account of the society culture and politics With a particular focus on the Ottoman Empire Turkey Egypt Iran and Palestine the contributors consider how and why such silences occur as well as the timing and motivation for breaking them Introducing unexpected sometimes counter intuitive issues in history chapters examine women and children survivors of the Armenian massacres in 1915 Greek Orthodox subjects who supported the Ottoman empire and the formation of the Turkish republic the conflicts among Palestinians during the revolt of 1936 39 pre marital sex in modern Egypt Arab authors writing about the Balkans the economic not national or racial origins of anti Armenian violence the European women who married Muslim Egyptians Drawing on a wide range of sources and methodologies such as interviews newly discovered archives fictional accounts and memoirs each chapter analyses a story and its suppression considering how their absences have affected our previous understandings of the history of the Middle East

Post-Empire Imaginaries? Barbara Buchenau, Virginia Richter, 2015-07-28 Empires as political entities may be a thing of the past but as a concept empire is alive and kicking From heritage tourism and costume dramas to theories of the imperial idea l empire sells Post Empire Imaginaries Anglophone Literature History and the Demise of Empires presents innovative scholarship on the lives and legacies of empires in diverse media such as literature film advertising and the visual arts Though rooted in real space and history the post empire and its twin the post imperial emerge as ungraspable ideational constructs The volume convincingly establishes empire as welcoming resistance and affirmation introducing post empire imaginaries as figurations that connect the archives and repertoires of colonial nostalgia postcolonial critique post imperial dreaming

Postcolonial Gateways and Walls Daria Tunca, Janet Wilson, 2016-11-07 Metaphors are ubiquitously used in the humanities to bring the tangibility of the concrete world to the elaboration of abstract thought Drawing on this cognitive function of metaphors this collection of essays focuses on the evocative figures of the gateway and the wall to reflect on the state of postcolonial studies Some chapters on such topics as maze making in Canada and the Berlin Wall in the writings of New Zealand authors foreground the modes of articulation between literal borders and emotional dis connections while others examine how artefacts ranging from personal letters to clothes may be conceptualized as metaphorical gateways and walls that lead or conversely regulate access to specific forms of cultural expression and knowledge Following this line of metaphorical thought postcolonial studies itself may be said to function as either barrier or pathway to further modes of enquiry This much is suggested by two complementary sets of contributions on the one hand those that contend that the canonical centre periphery paradigm and the related writing back model have prevented scholars from recognizing the depth and magnitude of cross cultural influences between civilizations on the other those that argue that the scope of traditional postcolonial models may be fruitfully widened to include territories such as post imperial Turkey a geographical and cultural gateway between East and West that features in several of the essays included in this collection

Ultimately all of the contributions testify to the fact that postcolonial studies is a field whose borders must be constantly redrawn and whose paradigms need to be continually reshaped and rebuilt to remain relevant in the contemporary world in other words the collection s varied approaches suggest that the discipline itself is permanently under construction Readers are therefore invited to perform a critical inspection of the postcolonial construction site

The Grandchildren Ayse Gul Altinay, 2017-07-12 The Grandchildren is a collection of intimate harrowing testimonies by grandchildren and great grandchildren of Turkey s forgotten Armenians the orphans adopted and Islamized by Muslims after the Armenian genocide Through them we learn of the tortuous routes by which they came to terms with the painful stories of their grandparents and their own identity The postscript offers a historical overview of the silence about Islamized Armenians in most histories of the genocide When Fethiye Cetin first published her groundbreaking memoir in Turkey My Grandmother she spoke of her grandmother s hidden Armenian identity The book sparked a conversation among Turks about the fate of the Ottoman Armenians in Anatolia in 1915 This resulted in an explosion of debate on Islamized Armenians and their legacy in contemporary Muslim families The Grandchildren translated from Turkish is a follow up to My Grandmother and is an important contribution to understanding survival during atrocity As witnesses to a dark chapter of history the grandchildren of these survivors cast new light on the workings of memory in coming to terms with difficult pasts

Turkey and the Politics of National Identity Shane Brennan, Marc Herzog, 2014-09-19 In the first decade of the twenty first century Turkey experienced an extraordinary set of transformations In 2001 in the midst of financial difficulties the country was under IMF stewardship yet it has recently emerged as one of the fastest growing economies in the world And on the international stage Turkey has managed to enhance its position from being a backseat NATO member and outside candidate for EU membership to being an influential regional power determining and developing its own individual foreign policy Shane Brennan and Marc Herzog explore how these and other changes have shaped the way people in Turkey perceive themselves and how the country s self image shapes its actions In the modern age the sovereign nation state still continues to be one of the basic building blocks of social or political identity The Turkish Republic founded in 1923 is a good example In weaving together and selecting certain elements of memory myth tradition and symbols the narratives of national identity in Turkey have been to a large extent socially constructed This volume offers analysis of the ways in which these narratives have been created maintained and negotiated and how current economic and political interests have been incorporated into the construction of a modern identity External forces such as those of cultural and economic globalisation have also been influential agents in this process

As a result the space and opportunity for social and cultural expression has increasingly widened while alternative identities and life style choices at both the collective and individual levels have also become more visible Bearing this in mind this book examines issues such as those of alternative gender identity and sexual orientation formerly taboo issues Through different approaches engaging with politics economy society culture and history Turkey and the Politics of National Identity offers new perspectives on the transformation of national identity in this increasingly influential country in the Middle East The Intellectual: A Phenomenon in Multidimensional Perspectives ,2020-04-28 The book we are happy to introduce here is a product of the 3rd Global Conference Intellectuals Knowledge Power Ideas held in Prague Czech Republic May 6 8 2010 The 3rd Global Conference of the Intellectuals project encouraged papers of two main thematic areas Intellectuals and the End of the Academy and Cultural Turns The New Old World Perry Anderson,2011-11-07 The New Old World looks at the history of the European Union the core continental countries within it and the issue of its further expansion into Asia It opens with a consideration of the origins and outcomes of European integration since the Second World War and how today s EU has been theorized across a range of contemporary disciplines It then moves to more detailed accounts of political and cultural developments in the three principal states of the original Common Market France Germany and Italy A third section explores the interrelated histories of Cyprus and Turkey that pose a leading geopolitical challenge to the Community The book ends by tracing ideas of European unity from the Enlightenment to the present and their bearing on the future of the Union The New Old World offers a critical portrait of a continent now increasingly hailed as a moral and political example to the world at large Run the Beast Down Titas Halder,2017-01-26 Charlie has stopped sleeping His neighbour s cat has been dismembered And worse he s being haunted by an urban fox In a haze of neon soaked insomnia lines blur between reality and fantasy A wild hallucinogenic mystery Run The Beast Down is an exhilarating monologue play combining elements of storytelling dark comedy and magical realism
